

Desperation no 25
End Time Insanity

Brian Kocourek, pastor

Romans 1:28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; 29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, 30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: 32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

Let us pray,...

42 And I see things that's coming up, and you can't tell the people. You see different things, and you're forbidden. Them visions that they call on, and sometimes they'd be sorry if you did tell them... And you know better than to do it. And then, you go so far in visions till everything becomes a vision, and it throws you into a nervous stage. You look and say, "Now, am I in a vision?" Like setting right here, "Is this a vision? Where am I really standing at?" See? You overwork yourself; you overtax yourself. And you find out things about people that you wished you didn't know. The people that desires these things, to know these things, they don't realize what that type of ministry costs. You don't know what goes with it. Then it throws into desperation, "Lord God, I know I'm going to have to answer."

Notice that William Branham spoke concerning a nervous stage that can come via overtaxing and overworking yourself. We found last Sunday that the foods we eat and the stress can set off this neurosis which is an end time insanity. So this evening we will continue in that study to see more of God's truth concerning the insanity we are seeing on a daily basis today.

From his sermon, Feast of the trumpets 64-0719M P:56 brother Branham said, "There's a great trouble somewhere; everybody knows it. Everybody's become a neurotic. The whole world is a neurotical world, and we know there's something wrong. The Pentagon, everywhere, we know there's something wrong.

Influence 63-0803E P:14 And if our American people are setting the pace today before our children of smoking cigarettes, the women and the men drinking, and cards in the house, and dice, what kind of a people will we have in the next race that is to come, or the next generation, rather, that is to come? It'll be a bunch of neurotics. And which I think the whole world is just about in that condition now. Then if this race, or this generation, rather, is like this, what will the next one produce? Then if there would be another, why, the whole human race, if it keeps going in the way it is, will become extinct altogether, because were killing ourselves and setting examples for others.

Now, he is saying something here that is very noteworthy, he is talking about the way this neurosis in his generation will bring on a neurosis that will produce extinction in the human race. so there is something here that we must understand about this neurosis he is talking about. And we find in the next quotation he ties this neurosis or insanity with what is happening in the social realm.

He cares do you care? 63-0721 P:34 *And social life, the people try to get together in this insane social life. Don't tell me the world's not insane in doing the way it's doing. It sure is. Certainly. It's a neurotic world. And by the grace of God is the only way we'll escape it. Notice, in this social life, the people has come to a place that they socialize little clans, and they get into there and think, "We're better than the next group." See? And it's just done that way and it's... The morals, it's hit the morals of the people until, honest, friends, I don't even believe that the word "moral" is recognized among ninety percent of the people of this nation. They don't even know what the word "moral" means. It's escaped from them. And it's done it so trickery.

Now the definition of the word Moral is: of or relating to, or concerned with the principles or rules of right conduct or the distinction between right and wrong; ethical: moral attitudes. 2. expressing or conveying truths or counsel as to right conduct, 3. founded on the fundamental principles of right conduct rather than on legalities, enactment, or custom: moral obligations. 4. capable of conforming to the rules of right conduct: a moral being. 5. conforming to the rules of right conduct (opposed to immoral): a moral man. 6. virtuous in sexual matters; chaste. 7 relating to or acting on the mind, feelings, will, or character: moral support.

So morals has to do with having a right conduct, and rules of right conduct. It has to do with the personification of what is right in the character of a person. Just as righteousness is a the expression of doing of what is right. And you cannot separate right doing from right thinking. A person who does not think right is incapable of doing what is right.

The Bible says in Isaiah 45:19 *I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

Therefore you cannot separate righteousness from being right. And to think right will make you act right. I disagree with those people who try in vein to claim they are righteous simply on having a right doctrine. Brother Branham said himself that you can have a right doctrine but be wrong in your heart and do what is not right in your actions, and you will have to answer for that.

Rising of the sun 65-0418M P:14 Satan doesn't care how religious you are, or how right you are in your doctrine; if you miss that Life, you're won't come up anyhow. No matter how religious, how good, how many churches you've belonged to or will belong to, it doesn't matter one thing unless you have been born again.

Getting in the spirit 61-0428 P:47 I don't care if the man's wrong. If he's wrong and sincere in his heart and you're right in your belief and you're wrong in the acting the way you're acting. I'd rather be in his place than be in yours. That's right. I'd rather be wrong in my doctrine and right in my heart. God will respect it more. So if a man is wrong, what of it? Help him. He needs help. Love him. If you can't love your enemy the same as you love those who love you, you're no better off than the publicans. That's right. That's what the Church has failed to get. I hope you get it tonight. I hope you see what I'm talking about.

Too many people think they are the righteousness of God because of their doctrine, but that is not what the Bible teaches. The Bible teaches you are righteousness because you do what is righteous. Therefore we can say that righteousness is the act of doing right. And the Apostle John told us in 1 John 3:7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he (God) is righteous.

So there is no way that you can be considered righteous outside of doing what is right. You can claim all day long that you are righteous because you have a right doctrine, But righteousness is not a condition of language or doctrine, it has never been you are because you claim you are or you are because you say you are but righteousness is a result of what you do, and your doing is a reflecting of that which is righteous.

Now, you might claim that you are right therefore your actions are right and thus righteous, but just because you say so doesn't make it so. It's got to be expressed for it to be righteousness.

Righteousness is a condition of doing what is right, so it has to do with actions, not just believing.

We read in Psalms 106:3 *Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

Therefore the Bible is not talking about a single act here and another act over there, but a constant walking in and doing what is right. *Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times. And there is only one way that you could be this consistent and that is that you have the mind of Christ, and are filled with the Same Spirit that raised up Jesus from the dead.

In other words, you have been quickened and made alive in Christ.

Romans 8:10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

Notice His Spirit has quickened, which means has made alive your mortal body by His Spirit that is now living in you.

And then Paul tells us, Romans 8:12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the self, to live after Self. 13 For if ye live after self, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. 15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. 16 The Spirit Itself (and there is only One The Spirit, and that is God's own Spirit) And so God's Spirit will bear witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

And how does God's own Spirit bear witness with our Spirit that we are truly His Sons and daughters? By bearing witness which means there is a manifestation in your life, the way you conduct your life that truly manifests and expresses that you are indeed living by the same God-Life that Jesus lived by.

Next we read in Acts 13:10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? And here we see that unrighteousness is a perverting or deviating from true righteousness.

And that leads us to what brother Branham is telling us here in Is your life worthy of the Gospel 63-0630E P:107 And before we read what he had to say, just look at that title. Is your life worthy of the Gospel. That title tells us whole lot about the conduct of a brother or sister in regards to the Gospel.

And then brother Branham tells us in that sermon, "Explain their condition. You can't. They cut their hair, wear the worldly clothes, walk out on the street like that. And God's Bible warns against, and even forbids a woman to even pray with bobbed hair. And says that a man... If she does that, she claims herself to her husband that she's immoral herself, and he has a perfect right to give her a divorce and send her away from him. That's exactly right. The Word of God saying that, and a woman hear that and continue to wear short hair and call herself a Christian, if that isn't a neurotic, what is a neurotic? I want somebody to tell me what a neurotic is then. Yes, they're neurotics, highly educated, degrees, college. We put more time on educating our children to algebra and biology than we have to the Bible and Jesus Christ. There ain't a kid in this country can't tell you who David Crockett is. There isn't a third of them can tell you Who Jesus Christ is. Then it's not neurotics? Certainly it is. How we could go on and on and on of how they do. Just remember. And the churches endorse it when the Bible condemns it. Is the ministry neurotics? Educated neurotics. That's exactly. Churches endorse it.

Now, I want you to look at this neurosis which brother Branham refers to here also as insanity, and we want to understand and see what he is saying through the eyes of God's Prophet and thus through the eyes of God. Remember in Psalm 103: 7 we are taught, "He (God) made known His ways unto Moses, His acts unto the children of Israel."

So we understand that the prophet will see things coming from very far away, thing that the people will not catch until they actually see the full blown manifestation of that thing. As brother Branham said, "God interprets His Word by bringing it to pass."

And I want you to notice the activities or behaviors that Br. Branham is calling insanity or neurosis, and he calls them social insanity, or social neurosis. And notice what he calls out, the cutting off of the woman's hair and the wearing of long hair by the man.

The women wearing clothing which pertains to the man and the man wearing clothing that pertains to a woman.

And he calls that immoral and perverted and the word perverted is defined as: changed to or being of an unnatural kind: 2 turned from what is right; become wicked; misguided; distorted.

So why would God be so displeased with a woman who wears clothing that belongs to a man? Because He is sexist? No!!! Because these things all lead to a perverting of the spirit, and a changing of that which is natural to that which is unnatural.

There is your LGBT problem we see today, and it is a result of the masculinizing of women's clothing and haircuts in the 50's and 60's until she looks more like a man today and the feminized men do. And the word masculinizing means to make masculine in character, quality, or appearance: And that is what we see all over this nation.

The LGBT sodomite growth began with the seemingly innocuous trading of clothing styles in the 50's and 60's. And God's prophet saw this coming and what it would lead to.

And brother Branham pointed to the clothing and actions of the character of their spirit in his sermon, Jehovah Jireh part 1 62-0705 P:80 And You made a covenant with Adam, and one with Eve; you put different covenant, and different altogether, and said it was wrong for the woman to act like the man. She'd be feminine, she should be feminish and not masculine. And today she tries to be masculine; the man, feminish.

And again we see the same thing in his sermon, Is your life worthy of the Gospel 63-0630E P:104 *Crime, the nation, the nation's got more crime then it ever had, and what's wrong? Teenagers, church members taking lives, men shooting their wives and family and burning up their children... And look at the crime wave. And they're not neurotics? Then what's the matter? Watch their actions? power-crazy nations. Everyone wanting to take the rest to make it one flag, one nation, and that be their flag and their nation: power-crazy? Immorality, why the world's more immoral than it ever was. Nude women on the streets, nude women, and say they're in their right mind? They can't be. They just can't be.

Is your life worthy 63-0630E P:103 I want to ask you a question then. Please explain their actions of today if they're not neurotics. Tell me what makes them act like they do if they're not neurotics? See?

You see the changing styles back then was the indication of the insanity that had already began to show itself in the population. And today the cross dressing is only a sign of the end time insanity unleashed among the people.

The former Johns Hopkins Chief of Psychiatry Dr. Paul R. McHugh is a brilliant former psychiatrist-in-chief for Johns Hopkins Hospital. He has written more than 125 peer-reviewed medical journal articles and has published half a dozen books and he is quoted as saying recently "changing the sex of a human is not possible. And, instead of a liberating sexual movement, those who think they are transgender are actually suffering from a life-destroying mental disorder."

Now, I don't think we needed a highly rated Psychiatrist to tell us what we already know to be truth. But nevertheless, it is true. Brother Branham pointed it our fifty to sixty years ago when he saw it in it's infancy, and now today we see it in the news every day. The end-time insanity is here.

And you can look at a person who is insane and most of the time you can tell they are just by looking at the way they look and conduct themselves. I believe that the man if the white house today is mentally deranged as well. Not only can we tell by his agenda, but all you have to do is look at the man and you can see those spirit of insanity in his very looks.

In an article by Politico magazine there is an article called "Could America Elect a Mentally Ill President?" Yes. In fact, we probably already did. By Alex Thompson November/December 2015 and the article goes on to say, "mental illness is surely more common in Washington than the public knows or wants to believe."

Br. Branham said in Satan's Eden 65-0829 P:78 *And if that's so, and we see it's so, so are you blinded. You're blinded to these denominations that Satan has twisted you into. And It's a perversion of God's original Word, and His Kingdom, and His plan for His children. Satan has twisted men and women into these things, and they don't know it: a perverted. No longer a son of God, bangs hanging down in his face and a pair of shorts on tromping down the street, a son of God, deacon in a church, a pastor in a pulpit? No. That ain't a son of God. He never come through God's thinking filter, and he wouldn't have them women's clothes on. He sure wouldn't; neither would she have the man's clothes on. See? It's not a son of God; it's a son of Satan and a daughter of Satan (hard thing to say). Satan has succeeded in perverting and taking over this world, and making it his kingdom that men was put on by free moral agency to choose for themselves what kind of life they desired. That shows what's in your heart. See?

Dr. Paul R. McHugh Johns Hopkins Chief Psychiatrist retired said: 'Transgendered Men Don't Become Women,' They Become 'Feminized Men,' 'Impersonators'

By Michael W. Chapman | May 5, 2016 | 11:46 AM EDT

Dr. Paul R. McHugh (Johns Hopkins Medicine)

Dr. Paul R. McHugh, the Distinguished Service Professor of Psychiatry at Johns Hopkins University and former psychiatrist-in-chief for Johns Hopkins Hospital, who has studied transgendered people for 40 years, said it is a scientific fact that “transgendered men do not become women, nor do transgendered women become men.” All such people, he explained in an article for The Witherspoon Institute, “become feminized men or masculinized women, counterfeits or impersonators of the sex with which they ‘identify.’” Dr. McHugh, who was psychiatrist-in-chief at Johns Hopkins Hospital for 26 years, the medical institute that had initially pioneered sex-change surgery – and later ceased the practice – stressed that the cultural meme, or idea that “one’s sex is fluid and a matter of choice” is extremely damaging, especially to young people.

"Caitlyn" Jenner. (AP)

The idea that one’s sexuality is a feeling and not a biological fact “is doing much damage to families, adolescents, and children and should be confronted as an opinion without biological foundation wherever it emerges,” said Dr. McHugh in his article, Transgenderism: A Pathogenic Meme.

“I am ever trying to be the boy among the bystanders who points to what’s real,” said Dr. McHugh, who is also professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at Johns Hopkins. “I do so not only because truth matters, but also because overlooked amid the hoopla—enhanced now by Bruce Jenner’s celebrity and Annie Leibovitz’s photography—stand many victims.”

“Think, for example, of the parents whom no one, not doctors, schools, nor even churches will help to rescue their children from these strange notions of being transgendered and the problematic lives these notions herald,” warned McHugh.

They rarely find therapists who are willing to help them “work out their conflicts and correct their assumptions,” said McHugh. “Rather, they and their families find only ‘gender counselors’ who encourage them in their sexual misassumptions.”

In addition, he said, “both the state and federal governments are actively seeking to block any treatments that can be construed as challenging the assumptions and choices of transgendered youngsters.” But there is plenty of evidence showing that “transgendering” is a “psychological rather than a biological matter,” said Dr. McHugh.

“In fact, gender dysphoria—the official psychiatric term for feeling oneself to be of the opposite sex—belongs in the family of similarly disordered assumptions about the body, such as anorexia nervosa and body dysmorphic disorder,” said McHugh.

“Its treatment should not be directed at the body as with surgery and hormones any more than one treats obesity-fearing anorexic patients with liposuction,” he said. In fact, at Johns Hopkins, where they pioneered sex-change-surgery, “we demonstrated that the practice brought no important benefits,” said Dr. McHugh. “As a result, we stopped offering that form of treatment in the 1970s.”

In recent years, though, the notion that one’s sex is fluid has flooded the culture. It is “reflected everywhere in the media, the theater, the classroom, and in many medical clinics,” said McHugh. It is biologically false that one can exchange one’s sex, explained McHugh.

“Transgendered men do not become women, nor do transgendered women become men,” he said. “All (including Bruce Jenner) become feminized men or masculinized women, counterfeits or impersonators of the sex with which they ‘identify.’ In that lies their problematic future.”

When “the tumult and shouting dies,” McHugh continued, “it proves not easy nor wise to live in a counterfeit sexual garb”. The most thorough follow-up of sex-reassigned people—extending over 30 years and conducted in Sweden, where the culture is strongly supportive of the transgendered—documents their lifelong mental unrest.” “Ten to 15 years after surgical reassignment, the suicide rate of those who had undergone sex-reassignment surgery rose to 20 times that of comparable peers,” said McHugh.

Nonetheless, the false “assumption that one’s sexual nature is misaligned with one’s biological sex,” can be treated with therapy and medication, said McHugh. He further stressed that, “What is needed now is public clamor for coherent science—biological and therapeutic science—examining the real effects of these efforts to ‘support’ transgendering.” “But gird your loins if you would confront this matter,” warned Dr. McHugh. “Hell hath no fury like a vested interest masquerading as a moral principle.” Dr. McHugh’s article, Transgenderism: A Pathogenic Meme, can be read in full at the website of The Witherspoon Institute.

The Apostle Paul warned us in the first chapter of Romans what will happen when a person leaves the Word of God. He said Romans 1:20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: 21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. 22 They Professed themselves to be wise, when actually they became fools, 23 And they changed the glory of the un-corruptible God into a corruptible image. 24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: 25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. 26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: 27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. 28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; 29 Being filled with all un-righteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, 30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: 32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

So we see that when men depart from the Living Word, they open themselves to satanic influences that brings on insanity and is expressed by men and women doing things which are no natural for them to do. It brings on a twisted spirit which leans to going against the very nature for which they were made.

There are more than 5,400 articles on the internet that deal with the mental illness in the white house. That means it is very apparent what is going on, and those who wish to bury their heads in the sand will continue to deny these truths, just like the people of Rome when it was very apparent Nero was insane.

We find brother Branham telling us in his sermon, Satan's Eden 65-0829 P:91 "Right on our radios and televisions, and all kind of filth and gaum, and Hollywood; all kinds of sexy, dirty, filthy dresses for women. And men being perverted and taking women's apparel, and cutting their hair like women, and women like man. O God, what a horrible hour we're living in. Oh, come, Lord Jesus, come. Come, Lord, cleanse us by the Blood. Take all filth and guile away from us. Let us live, Lord. Let us live under the Blood constantly before You. It's our heart's desire, and our sincere plea."

Again in Satan's Eden 65-0829 P:77 he said, "Men, now, you may differ me with this, but that's the truth. You have been perverted and don't know it. You don't act like a man no more. Coming so soft and they soon be nothing to them anymore, men and women, too. They are a society. There's an organization. Why? "John next door wore shorts, so why can't I? Luella wanted me to wear them, because John wore them next door. And well, if Susie Jane can wear them, so can Martha Jane wear them, or Susie Lou," or ever who her name is. See? See, it's a society. It's an organization. You spiritually belong to it and don't know it.

And again from his sermon, Paradox 64-0206B P:36 brother Branham warned us, "A few weeks ago, in our meetings in New York City, I'd come out one night from the Morris Auditorium, and we were walking down the street, my son and I. And we looked upon the people, and there were just thousands, and men with hair like women, you know, what they call ratted, and earrings, and legotards on; and white and colored children, you know what I mean, men and women together. And a poor old woman fell on the street; nobody picked her up, just went on. And I helped her get her oranges, and picked up like that, old thing about seventy years old. And she looked at me real strange and went down the street. I spoke to a cab driver about it. He said, "Mister, when anybody comes to New York, and acts like they're in their right mind," he said, "we know he's a stranger." See? Said, "Them are good people," said, "but they just get into that swing." Said, "You take a man that comes here, it isn't long till he's in that same condition. He comes in here try to do everything." Said, "You could lay there and die on that street in a heart attack; somebody'd think you was drunk. They'd never touch you; let you lay there and die." See, they don't mean to be that way. It's just getting in the swing.

And from his sermon, Modern events made clear by prophecy 65-1206 P:2 Thinking, as Brother Henry said there, "those men with them hair like the women should have..." You see? That's right. Look like the... I see these boys kind of have that hair, they even put these roller-curlers in it, around their face. And I don't know, Sometimes I become discouraged. It looks like that it's a true time of perversion. Men are trying to wear women's clothes, and women wearing men's clothes. And men leaving their hair like women, and women having hair like men. What's the matter with this people anyhow? Has the, really, the very threads of decency and honor left this nation and these people, this world? This is a horrible time, but it's the most glorious time in the world to preach the Gospel.

Works is faith expressed 65-1126 P:136 We realize, Father, that we're a dying generation of people. We're heading, faced with eternity. The world has gone insane. Murders; little girls being cut to pieces and ravished. The people, men wearing their hair like women, women like men; they're just perverting. The race is dying. The world's a-dying. Everything's a-dying. The church is dying. O God, bring Life. Bring Life, O God, Life of faith. Reveal to these people, Lord. I can only pray and lay my hands upon them. But You're the One that can heal them, and You alone can heal them. I pray that You will, Father, to each and every one. Grant it, with my hands upon them, and asking with all my heart; in the Name of Jesus Christ, heal these people. Amen.

Faithful Abraham 61-0312 P:55 Now, this first man, Adam, look at him. In spirit he was both feminish and masculine. And then he was made flesh. And he had no helpmate. Then God... A woman is not in the original creation of God. She's a byproduct of the man. So to make them one, to show what He did, He opened up the side of Adam, and took a part of Adam's flesh (so that they wouldn't be separated, they'd be one), and took part of Adam's spirit, part of Adam's flesh, took the feminish spirit off of Adam and made an Eve. And when you see a woman, the way some of our modern women, hair cuts like men, smoke like men, cuss like men... You see a woman that wants to be masculine, there's a perversion there somewhere. And when you see a man sissified with a, look like a duck setting on the back of his head, and so forth like that, and wants to wear women's clothes all the time, there's something perverted there somewhere. God made men to be men, and women to be women. The Bible said so...

Leadership 65-1207 P:119 O God, let me go, Lord. Don't leave me behind, Jesus. Let me go with You, Father. I don't want to stay here on this earth to watch these tribulations coming on. I don't want to stay here in this insanity. I don't want to stand here when hideous sights, the people losing their mind. We look at men trying to act like beasts and look like beasts; and the women trying to look like animals, with the paints on their face. Knowing that these things are predicted to happen, that the thing will, they'll go so insane till locusts will rise up with hair like women to haunt the women, and teeth like lions, and things that You've said; the mental condition of the people will be completely gone. We see it in the making right now, Lord. Help us. Restore us to the sane mind of Christ Jesus our Lord. O great Leader of Eternal Life, we accept Your promise tonight, Father. I plead for this people. I plead for every one of them, in the Name of Jesus Christ, Lord. I pray that Christ the Son of God will come into the hearts of every one of us, Lord, and mold us and make us into new creatures in Jesus Christ. Grant it, Lord God. We love You. And we want our dispositions, our change to come into us, that we can be Your children, feel of Your Spirit moving in our hearts, Lord, tendering us and bringing us to realization of this insane age that we're living in. Grant it, God. When we see young women so caught up in the web of the Devil, young men, perverted minds, children, dope addicts, cigarette smoking, drinking, immoral, Satan's Eden.

When their eyes were opened 64-0312 P:29 My, testing Jack Ruby the other day for insanity; they're still doing it. The whole world's insane. Sure, the man's crazy. No man can shoot another without being crazy. The whole world's crazy. Certainly it is. The farmer, he's crazy to the businessman; the businessman's crazy to the farmer. Who is crazy? The whole group is. There's only one sane thing, and that's Jesus Christ, the Son of God. And His Gospel has the answer to everything. Our books of psychology, and all these things, are nonsense. If it's contrary to this Word, throw it all away. God's Word is right, and all others are wrong. You see these things. No wonder the world's become drenched in blood. No wonder the things are the way they are now. We don't, it's just every time... Wonder if Oswald, that murdered our president, wonder if he'd have got an insane test. I doubt it. But you see, how can a man run in and shoot another man, and take his life, and go on? Well, I'm in Texas. I'll just stop on that. But let me tell you something. The Lord will take care of it all someday at His coming. Notice. You have no right to take any man's life. No sir. God's the only One has right to take life. It's true.

Let us pray...
