

Satan's Eden No. 238
The Great End Time Insanity - Perversion
September 21, 2025
Brian Kocourek, Pastor

Good morning, everyone. God bless you. Let's bow our heads in prayer. Gracious Father, we're so thankful, Lord, that You are here today. And Father, that we are here today as well. And knowing that for eternity we'll be together. So Father, we pray that You would help us in this hour to understand the things that are going on. In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen. You may be seated.

This morning, I'd like to preach from Satan's Eden. This is No. 238. And it's entitled The Great End Time Insanity - Perversion.

From Satan's Eden pp. 78. Brother Branham said, And if that's so, and we see it's so, (so in other words, it's not a guess, it's true.) so are you blinded. You're blinded to these denominations that Satan has twisted you into.

And it's a perversion of God's original Word, and His Kingdom, and His plan for His children.

Notice, he said, it is a perversion of the kingdom of God that God has ordained for His children. So this then tells us that anything that is contrary to the Ordained will of God is a perversion. So everything you see going on the media today, it's all perversion.

Then he said, "Satan has twisted men and women into these things, and they don't know it: a perverted."

Galatians 1:6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: (Now, the word another is actually the Greek word, Heteros, and it means another nature.) 7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

So it's not just another nature, it's a perversion. Just like when a man says he's a woman, it's a perversion. Or a woman says she's a man, it's a perversion.

So it is a Gospel of a different nature. They say it is the same, but Genesis 1:11 says every seed after its kind (or Nature). And Matthew 7:20 says, "By their fruits you will know them."

Just look at the news today. It is filled full of perversions. People of a different nature. Transvestite this, transvestite that. And like Brother Branham said, they don't know if they are male or female. Now he told us this 60 years ago. So that's prophetic.

That is pretty sick parenting if you do not teach your children the right way of thinking. I don't believe that anybody that has taught their children the right way to think, that their child is going to become a pervert. And then if you don't do it, then some teacher will get a hold of your kids and twist their tender minds into thinking they aren't what they are.

In other words, there's a thing called furry, and these kids are dressing up like animals. And then of course they're having whatever. So they're dressed like animals, and they're acting like animals. And they are animals because they're murderers.

What do they do that for? Well, what do the teachers teach kids to be transvestites for? Brownie points with their peers. Then it turns the children into screwballs, until by the time they are ready for college, they are mentally gone, perverted, and just useful for being cannon fodder left for the burning.

And that's why Brother Branham, 60 years ago, he said: "They are cannon fodder." Now that was a hard term. And let's face it, some of the things Brother Branham said were very hard. But you know what? We believe 100% what he said. And like when he preached on Marriage and Divorce, he said, some of these women aren't worth a good bullet. Well, now I don't know if that's translated that way in German, but that's what he said. And a lot of people left Brother Branham. Well, that's just too hard. How could a man say that? Listen, in other words, he was saying, I wouldn't spend the money it takes to buy a good bullet for one of those types of women.

What does it matter if a college student thinks right or left? Politics won't save them. The Word is the only hope of Salvation, and they have already turned that down.

The very fact that they've turned from conservative to transvestite shows that they're already lost. Now you think that you're going to go out there and change these kids back to being right. You might turn them to being MAGA. Right? But are you going to turn them to be right? God's right thinking. I think it's over, brothers and sisters. I think the door is closed, and we're just seeing the results of everything out there.

Brother Branham continues saying, *"No longer a son of God, bangs hanging down in his face and a pair of shorts on tromping down the street, a son of God, deacon in a church, a pastor in a pulpit? (I don't think so.)

Then, Brother Branham says something very straightforward and clear. He says. No. That ain't a son of God. He never came through God's thinking filter, and he wouldn't have those women's clothes on.

He sure wouldn't; neither would she have the man's clothes on. See? It's not a son of God;

I mean, I remember at the age of 22, quitting soccer, because I tried to play with my Adidas pants on, and the referee told me, You're not in uniform. So then I went to play goalie instead, because a goalie can still wear the long pants. But Brother Branham was telling us that when men wear women's shorts, they're wearing their undergarments.

So he says, it's a son of Satan and a daughter of Satan (hard thing to say). Satan has succeeded in perverting and taking over this world, and making it his kingdom, that men were put on by free moral agency to choose for themselves what kind of life they desired.

Ok, so right there, you must realize that it all depends on what they do with the Word. If they receive the word they are a son or daughter of God, if they won't receive the Word, they are a son or daughter of Satan.

And I am sorry to say this, but it only takes one word off to show who you are a seed of. Now, there are a lot of people in this message who are sons of Satan. I'm just going to say right out. I mean, they act like women, they talk like women, they even dress like women. But God, in His infinite Grace, gives us more than one time. He gives us a lifetime of Grace.

Be fortunate that God hasn't taken you home yet, because you'd be crystallized in what you are. Once you're dead, you're done. You're crystallized.

Satan didn't prove himself that he was evil by turning down the Word that God had told Adam in the garden when He said "not to eat from the two trees in the garden". That is not where Satan proved himself to be what he was. He disagreed with what God told Adam.

He had already proved himself to be evil in Heaven when he was kicked out for what he said and what he did there. But there is where he proved himself to be an evil Cherubim by deceiving the third part of heaven.

Then he says, "That shows what's in your heart. See?

In other words, as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he. So if you're going to do those things, because out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh. So if you do those things, it just shows you what's in your heart.

Now, I don't think for one minute that Charlie Kirk would have gone out on campuses if he had only known what we know. So you can't blame him. He didn't have access to our Prophet like we did.

You can listen to over a thousand things and hear what you want to hear. There are a lot of people who left this message that said, Brother Branham said this wrong. Brother Branham said this wrong. And you know what? Out of 1288 sermons, they found one or two little things, and they jump on it and they go after it. That's what they did with Charlie Kirk. They took something they didn't like, and they twisted it, and went after him.

Somewhere here, you will hear all good, and as brother Branham said, if you hear something you disagree with, then act like you're eating cherry pie and just spit out the seed.

I don't think you could hear everything a person has to say and agree 100% with everything they say, nor can you hear everything and disagree with everything they have to say.

So, as mature sons and daughters of God, you cannot put away any person as though they are worthless based on one thing they say, just because they didn't say everything to your own liking.

But that is what happened to Charlie Kirk. An immature person decided he should not live because they found him to say a thing that was offensive to himself and his friends.

Did the shooter stop to think that maybe his own understanding was perverted? Did he even consider that? No, he thought Charlie Kirk was perverted. Just like Cain when he talked to Abel. Cain thought Abel was perverted. Abel knew that Cain was perverted. Did Cain stop to think maybe God did not bless him because he was wrong? Or did he get angry because he was wrong?

I mean, he could have asked Adam what was right and what was wrong, His father. Well, he actually wasn't his own father, but he was rebellious toward his parents as well. That was his nature. That was his seed's nature. But, no, he didn't like what Abel said, so his reaction was to cancel him out, to kill him.

And if you've got that thought in your mind, you're wrong. If you say, well, why don't they just round up all the transvestites and just get rid of them? It's the wrong thinking, all right? Doesn't mean we agree with them at all. But they're part of God's plan. The reason God doesn't give us a body change right now is like Brother Vayle said some 40 years ago. He said, If God gave us a body change, we'd all be out running around the world disassembling every bomb there is. And he said, But that's part of God's plan, is they're going to have the bombs. The earth has to end with a loud noise and fervent heat. So, you can't take things on yourself to do what you want. You have to let God do what He wants.

So just give Charlie Kirk some credit for trying to save as many as he could from the illogical transvestite movement that tells you that you can be whatever you want to be. You can transition yourself to be a woman if you were born a man, but everybody else knows. In other words, don't tell me to call you Sally when I know your name is Joe or George. I'm not going to fall for your politics.

Or you can transition yourself to be a furry creature if you were born a human being. You just can't do it. “Every seed will come forth as God intended you to be.” So if you are a man, then be thankful God made you a man. If you're a woman, be thankful God made you a woman. You see, people are unthankful and unholy, and that's the beginning of it right there. And to think you can change what God created you to be. You can't do it.

If your flesh goes against Genesis 1:11, “every seed after its kind,” which is God's law of life. Just remember, that is what satan did in heaven. He was made a cherub, but he wanted to elevate himself above the sons of God.

But don't worry about Charlie Kirk. He was a Christian. He didn't understand what you understand, so he won't be held to the standard you will be held to. But he understood he was saved by the Grace of God, and he believed that Jesus Christ was the Son of God.

And Brother Branham said, “If you disagree with everything I say except Jesus Christ was the Son of God, you are my brother”.

Now, you see, we get little cults in this message that say, Well, if you don't believe my certain doctrine, I don't receive you as a brother, or you're not even a brother. And there it's gone into hatred, and it's got to stop. Brother Branham said that when the persecution arises, he said, it'll drive all the different cults and clans together, and that's what's going to be needed, because the people are too stubborn. They think that we're right, everybody else is wrong.

So, I believe he will come up at the White-Throne and be given life. And he will enjoy living without these demonic influences in the new earth.

That so disturbed him here. I watched some interviews with him, and he was being attacked by even his friends. He said a few things that were like, I like to question what they're doing in Gaza. And all of a sudden, he becomes an anti Semite. He wasn't an anti Semite. He loved the children of God. He just didn't care for the politics of the government. But you see, they take one thing and he's out. Take one thing, you're out. You don't believe Parousia, you're out. You don't believe Godhead, you're out. You don't believe Two Souls, you're out. You don't believe Seven Thunder, you're out. And so we see this message melt down into a bunch of cults. Even if the doctrine you hold true in your heart, if you're not living it, you don't believe it. If you really did believe the Parousia, your entire life would be living for Christ. It wouldn't be trying to serve yourself and not serving your brother.

From the sermon Influence 64-0315 P:14 Brother Branham said, "There are many times there are men I don't disagree with, they disagree with me. But if it can't be upon tolerance, and upon the thoughts of better fellowship and things, then I won't say anything about it."

If I can disagree with the man ever so much, if I can't put my arm around him and from my heart know he's my brother, then I oughtn't to be talking to him. That's right. We've got to do that.

And from his sermon Marriage and Divorce 65-0221M P:18, he said, "And now, listen closely. And sisters, don't get up and go out; sit still just a little while. Brothers, do the same. Don't turn off your sets out there, that's coming in on this hookup."

"Don't do that. And just sit still for a few minutes until it's over. Listen close."

"If you disagree, put down the Scriptures that I use and then study them prayerfully before you make your decision. God help us as we try to approach this subject."

So, we are human, that is why we try to say only what our end-time Prophet of God said, or what the Scriptures say. That is our only hope of staying in line with God's thinking.

And if we meet someone in life who doesn't say all that God said, then be thankful for what little they do say that is correct.

You see, there are a lot of people out there who say, Oh, the Catholic people are bad people. And, they're crazy, they believe in a multiplicity of gods and praying to the dead and everything else. But what do they believe that's the same? Well, they don't believe in taking a baby's life. Hey, I can Amen that. Can you? All right, so do I criticize them? Listen, I met more Catholic people who have a decent, godly life than I've met in this message. This message is an offshoot of Pentecost. And Pentecost, Brother Branham said, give them 50 years, and they'll be worse than the Catholic Church. But there are a lot of Catholic people also who are fanatical about their Catholicism. Just leave them alone. All right? But when you can agree, agree.

When you don't agree, just let them go, all right? Because you're not responsible for correcting their error. You're only responsible to God. I don't care what any of you think. I said that many times here. I only care what God thinks. I'm responsible to God. I'm not responsible to you.

From Marriage and Divorce 65-0221M P:4 Brother Branham said, “ And I want to say that if any minister or ministers, anyplace, should this tape ever fall into their hands (if we release this tape)... I don't know what the church will do about it...

... “and any of my minister brothers or any Christian anywhere, that would disagree upon the things that I am saying about this subject, I trust that you will not criticize it.”

Well, apparently he wasn't talking to the message people because he didn't say message. He said Christians. You see, you can say, well, I'm a message church. They're a message church. They're a message church. They're a message church over there. There's a message church over there. And you've got a denomination. We're all hanging the shingle, we're all Parousia. This group's four, five, six churches, we're Parousia. This over here, they believe the Godhead, they're Parousia. Their denomination. Their denomination. Two Souls denomination. There are a lot of denominations in this message.

Brother Branham never said, I'm going to go to a message church. I'm not going to preach to the message people. He said, I'm talking to Christians. Are you a Christian this morning, or are you a message person? If you're a message person and not a Christian, you're not a Christian. You're a message believer. You're in a denomination called the Message. All right, See, there is too much of this going on. Well, you don't believe the Parousia like we do, so apparently you are wrong. Listen, give me a break. Just give me a break. Who are you, huh? I just don't get it. I just don't understand this. Hate, hate, hate, hate, hate. Now, I can see standing up for. Right, right, right, right, right. In other words, standing up for the right doctrine, but you don't tear down the other person to make your point. A bad argument is when you revert to name-calling. It means that you don't think logically, you don't think rationally. You can't put together a string of words to make your point. So you think about, well, if I can just hate this person, if I can call him enough names, maybe it'll convince you to believe like me. It doesn't do that, Brother, Sister. So don't you do that.

So Brother Branham says, any of you ministers or Christians, I trust that you will not criticize it.”

"If you don't understand it the way that I teach it, well, you have a right to that as a minister, as a shepherd, and I respect anything that you believe."

All right, well, he's just a Jehovah's Witness. Well, you know what? There are a lot of good points with Jehovah's Witnesses. Well, he's just Pentecostal. Yeah, there are a lot of good things about Pentecostals, too. In other words, get off your high horse, or God will do what He did to Paul, and he'll slam you on the ground.

There are people who disagree on one point that I make, and they will walk out of this church. They've done it over the years, we've had 200 people leave this church.

That's ok though, this Word is just not for them. I hope they can find somewhere that they can go and attend and find agreement with everything they say over there. But you know what? I found those same people who have gone different directions and gone to different churches, and they start criticizing that church as well. I've had people come here who were criticizing in Brother Vayle's church, and they said, Well, we want to come down to your church. I said, Well, just a minute. If you come down, I don't want to hear a word out of your mouth about that church. Leave their laundry there and just come down here and be a brother. You know what? They wouldn't do it. So I said, Well, don't bother. But even Brother Branham said, My own wife and I disagree on some things. Have you ever disagreed with your husband? I think so. Did you still love him? Amen. If you don't love them because you have a disagreement, you are the problem, not the person you disagreed with.

Meda liked apple pie, and he liked cherry pie. So, are you telling me you can't have a civil marriage with your spouse because you disagree on some things? On what dessert to eat, apple or cherry?

Then who is wrong here, my brother and sister, the one you disagree with, or yourself for making it an issue? There's an old expression, Choose your battles. And I don't think that 99% of the battles we have are really wise. So who's wrong, my brother or sister? It's you. If you got a problem with that person and are trying to change that person. I've told sisters in here, I said, look, you loved your husband when you met him, but then over the years, you say, well, he didn't change this and he didn't change that. You married him the way he was. Why are you trying to change him? Okay, well, he doesn't eat right. He takes too much on his fork. You know what? I knew a brother whose wife was complaining all the time about the way he ate because he ate his food with a knife. He put his peas on a knife. And you know what? I didn't love him any less.

I just thought he was kind of quirky. But you know what? He is my brother. Okay, so who's wrong if you go around with an attitude all the time? Brother Branham said, It'll keep you out of there, by the way,

Why can't we all agree on at least one thing? God's Word is correct, everything else is an error. And no man has a right to interpret God's Word. He interprets it by bringing it to pass.

Now we all know that a smattering of common sense, mixed with Politics and a little religion, is not going to save anyone that are lost.

And I am not saying Charlie didn't do his best with what he knew. I can say that at least he was trying. That's a lot more than many people do. They just sit back and criticize everyone else.

So never get it in your mind that if you don't believe everything you hear, that you have a right to cancel them out whichever way you want.

If you don't like one thing or even most of what a man says, then you have a right not to listen to them. Just don't go there unless you wish to debate a point openly.

But you have no right to cancel them out so others can't hear what they have to say. It's not untypical for a person to leave a church and then go around and try to go to the people in the church and say bad things about the pastor. I've seen it here. I've seen other churches. No, that person who left, is wrong to begin with. They went out from us because they're not of us. So if you're not of us, just say, I'm not of them. That's it. That's it. That's as far as I'll take it. I'm not going to criticize the way that they are or the things they say. I'm just saying, it wasn't for me.

And especially to cancel their life completely, as in death. That only shows you are anointed with the mind of Satan, as was Cain, his son. Now remember, Jesus said you're of your father, the devil. What did they do to Him? They killed Him. So it shows that Cain was of Lucifer. Okay? And he was just like the Pharisees were, they had their own form of religion and did not have the mind of God.

They had the word. Brother Branham said they can read the same word. They can say the same word. We can all say the word Parousia. We can all say the word Godhead. But what are you doing with it? Is it just a speech, or is it transforming your life to be holy and to love one another and realize that no man is perfect? Brother Branham even said, Listen, I make mistakes. You believe Brother Branham made mistakes? He did. He said it. But he said, This word never makes a mistake. So that's your absolute, brother, sister. Not, well, Brother

Branham said, I like cherry pie, so I'd better eat cherry pie if I'm going to make it. I've heard people say that, by the way, but you know what? That's crazy talk. That's cultish talk.

The Bible tells us, “Had they known Who he was, they would not have crucified the lord of glory.”

So Satan never gave Charlie Kirk any peace in his last few years, and even after his assassination, Satan still wages war over the man's legacy. But he had something special in him to try to win souls and minds.

But if you in any way deviate from MAGA, you're called. Oh, you're not MAGA. I've heard people say that, You don't believe in MAGA. Listen, I believe in about 90 percent of it, but I don't believe in it all.

Just like there's a truth to Seven Thunders, it's just not what they say about it. It's what Brother Branham said about it. There's a truth to having two different souls or two different natures of the spirit. You know, your old nature dies. Your new nature is Christ. But you see, it's not what they say because they go out and marry two or three women so they can have one for each soul.

There are funny things, like people not liking to eat meat, and things like that. There's no scripture for it. There is a scripture that says they shall say in the end time not to eat meat. So there's no scripture for not eating meat, okay? There's not one scripture for it. Brother Vayle ate some of the salmon you gave him a week or two before he died, okay? So I brought him Chinese chicken dinners all the time. So Brother Vayle did eat meat. But there are certain people who had their own little game they wanted to play.

And they wanted to cover everybody and make people subservient. So they spread this rumor that you can't eat meat. That's hogwash. Brother Branham called them cults. And that's exactly what it is.

But I tell you, no one has ever won a soul by preaching morality or politics. You have to do that with the Word alone. “Solo Scriptura,” as Martin Luther proclaimed.

These young people have rejected the Word of God like the Cardinals did in Luther's day and tried to silence Luther. I've been to Worms, where he was summoned for his trials and things. I was there in Germany. And they tried to silence him, even by censuring him and trying to kill him.

Noah didn't reach out to the totally lost once the ark doors were closed. It says he preached to the lost for 120 years while building the ark. He did not preach morality, nor did he preach politics.

God made sure of that by closing the doors. But Noah left whether the doors were open or closed, completely up to God.

Why don't we do that? Well, they don't believe it exactly like I do. But you know what? They might be a son of God. I'll probably be on the other side with them. Leave it up to God, all right? Noah didn't make that choice to close the door himself. God closed the door.

Moses didn't try to convert the Egyptian soldiers. But he recognized God's children from those who were not. He tried to preach morality to the Egyptian soldier, and all he had to show was a dead soldier for his efforts.

That's before he met the Pillar of Fire. He didn't like the way the soldier was treating a man, so he hit him, and he killed him. I don't think he meant to kill him, but he was a pretty powerful man. So he was preaching morality. And it didn't work.

So he went into the Wilderness to find out what he must do. Paul did the same thing. Paul was killing Christians until God said, I'm going to knock you off your high horse.

Both met the Pillar of fire. When Moses tried to cross the Red Sea, he didn't say, Come, let us reason together", and talk these differences over, and perhaps we can strike up some common ground. The soldiers are coming. Oh, good, we're going to have a revival. There are more of us. There are millions of soldiers, we're going to have a revival. He didn't think that. He let God take over.

He didn't think that finally Paroah was coming to talk, and with all his armies. Maybe we will start a revival. No, He left it up to God, and God is the one Who drowned everyone of them in the Red Sea. Their death was not Moses' fault.

It wasn't my fault that God took out our enemies of the gospel the way He did. I mean, there are several who died and several who left the Message. Everyone else who had come against me in Uganda.

It bothered me that God stepped in and fought my battles for me in Uganda. But now I expect it. So you know what? I tread softly. I don't antagonize. I make sure that I'm not to blame for that person dying because they blasphemed. All right? Just let them be.

It's not for us to write people off for what they say. Leave it up to God to take care of that situation.

Then “everything will work together for the good to them who love God (And remember he said, you can't love me unless you love your brother.) and to them who love God, them who are called according to his Purpose.”

But if you try to fight your battles, God will sit back and will not fight for you. You say, then why do you fight? Because if I don't, God will step on the scene, and I don't want those kinds of results. Because I don't want God to have to fight my battle and kill somebody, because I don't want the person dead. So I end up fighting. I shouldn't do it.

We have seen this example over and over in the Bible. God fought when Israel didn't try to do it themselves, but when God decided, Israel knew they couldn't do it, then He just took over for them.

Moses' own sister was dying of Leprosy because of what she said about Moses and his dark skinned wife. Brother Branham's own wife mouthed off, and God gave her a tumor that would have taken her life if God's prophet had not implored God to take it off of her.

Moses even told the 2 million who were following him, Listen, they had left families and homes and everything else. But you know what? They were complainers. And Moses even told the 2 million who were following him, “Whoever is on the Lord's side, come stand with me”. Now, if he thought everyone agreed with him 100% he would not have said that. Come and stand with me, would he? For what reason would he say it?

Now, when he did, God opened up the ground and destroyed Korah and his people. When the people chose to stand with God's prophet, the other people who were left, God took out. Moses didn't do it though, God destroyed them.

Now, I can say that Charlie Kirk would be better off had he died a martyr for the pure Gospel alone, instead of mixing the Word with politics. And remember, Brother Branham told us in Jezebel Religion, they can't do it through religion, so they're going to mix it with politics, and there they'll control it. So poor Charlie, hybrid the word, and told the kids some word. That's wonderful, but he also told them to be MAGA. It doesn't work that way.

Had he stood in the middle and said, “both the GOP and DNC are wrong, both sides are guilty of deserting the Word of God”, he might not have been as popular with the political Right, and the political left wouldn’t have taken him as a political adversary like they did.

When he started to see that when we bless Israel, we are not blessing the government of Israel, but the real Israelites. When he started to see that his life became very turbulent. He said so, I heard him on a tape. Those are his own words. I heard him in an interview.

But that’s all I can say about that for now. But had he based everything on scripture, which he was trying to do. Because, remember, he didn’t have this message. He didn’t have an understanding of the scripture like we have. He was an evangelical, and that’s what evangelicals do: they evangelize.

Those lefties wouldn’t have gone to his rallies. He would be alive today. He would be saved. He would be alive today.

But they cancelled him instantly with a bullet, and their fathers cancelled the Prince of Peace not instantly with a bullet, but very painfully with a slow, painful torture and crucifixion. Shows what kind of a spirit they had to torture somebody and then kill them.

So he did what he knew to do, and he was very successful in doing it. And he had a right to do it without any interference from the opposition.

If they were so opposed to him, why didn’t they come and talk out their disagreements? But don’t silence him with a bullet. You can silence anyone if you have the correct word, if your word happens to be more correct than theirs.

But resorting to the bullet only showed their own frustrations, because they did not have any real answers. Because they had no argument, and so just like Cain had no argument with Abel, he tried to cancel him out by slaying him. Shows he was of the wicked one.

So that’s all I am going to say on this subject. Charlie was a good man, and he tried to change people back to humans again, but the problem is that a lot of these people had become trans-humans, and they killed him for it.

If he had just understood “every seed after its kind,” he would have avoided the trouble with those serpent seed.

That's why I avoided the masses when preaching overseas. The Son of Man came to sow seeds. That's His job. That has already been done. Brother Branham sowed the Seeds. Our job is not to sow seeds, but to water that which was sown by the Son of Man.

But he did what he thought was the right way because the Evangelicals around him think anyone can be saved and changed, and we know they cannot. They think you can be born a hog and one day you become a son of God. You can't. You were born a son of God. You just didn't know it. You were in God's thinking before the foundation of the world. You just didn't know it.

That's not what Genesis 1:11 tells us. It says, "every seed after it's kind." That is the most important scripture in the entire Bible. Because if you're not of God, then I'm sorry, but you have no opportunity. But those around him would say, "How glorious to save a child from the fire," only to place him in the pot left for burning later.

What would you rather do? Have Charlie go off the scene now because he was a good man, or just let him hang around for the tribulation? I'd rather have him go home now. God saved him from the wrath to come.

They are just proselytizing to the political right when God's prophet said they are both wrong. Christ is the only answer, not Christ the Word, plus the right kind of politics. No, He said the Word alone.

In Satan's Eden PP. 79, Brother Branham said, "Your voice... You know what? Your actions speak so loud, it drowns your voice. Uh-huh. Let me go to a man, say, 'Oh, I... We're all Christians.

*We belong to a church," and strip teases hanging all over his office? It wouldn't make any difference what he's told me; I know better; "so would you."

I went into a person's Home who had a high position in a church, and he had naked pictures all over his house. His daughter had drawn those pictures. And I said, Get those pictures out. He said, You're being mean. He went to Brother Vayle. Brian's just a dictator. He's telling me what to do. Listen, Brother Branham said, you can go into a man's house and if you see those girly pictures and stuff, you know he's not a Christian. What a testimony to have something like that in Your house.

So as for MAGA, I told Donald Trump Junior in a text when he asked me why I wasn't contributing to his father to make America great again. He said, "Don't you want to make America great again?" I said, "he never made it great before, how can he make great again when he has sodomites in his cabinet in the first term?" This is before he even elected a cabinet this time. I said, "God will never honor what is against His Word".

America will never be made great again. It wasn't great to begin with. It was a fraud. Now, I'm not saying it was evil. It was probably the most right amongst all nations, because most nations were totalitarian. The man upstairs just told everybody what to do, and they abided. But at least, America, you have the right to religion. You have the right to make your own speech and things like that.

Brother Branham continues, "*Let a woman say she is a Christian with short hair? You know better than that. See? Yes, sir." You know better than that. You know that? Hopefully, you've been taught the scriptures where it says so in the scripture.

"Let her say she's a Christian wearing paint, and makeup, and shorts, and say she's a Christian? You know better than that. The Word of God teaches you better than that."

I had a conversation. I was waiting for my brakes to be fixed, and there was a man sitting next to me, and he was talking to me, and we got to talking about different things like abortion and things like that. And he said, Well, my wife believes in abortion.

I said, Well, I said, is she a Christian? Oh, he says she is. She's a Baptist. She believes in God. And I said, well, you know what, no person can be a Democrat if they're a Christian, because to be a Democrat, you've got to vote to kill babies or vote for someone who will kill the baby for you. And I said, Christians don't do that. He said, Boy, I enjoyed this conversation. We should talk to my wife. So I said, Well, you can do it.

And you know what? I never heard from Donald Trump Jr. again. He didn't like my answers. Maybe if you get a lot of these phone calls and stuff or texts, just tell them a little bit of truth, and you get rid of them.

So "Let her say she's a Christian wearing paint, and makeup, and shorts, and say she's a Christian? You know better than that. The Word of God teaches you better than that."

But today's Right wing is as Godless as the left is Satanic. Did you know that? Maybe they are a little bit more normal, yet they are not really Christians. Because to be Christian means you are "Christ-like". That's what the word meant when they coined the term back in the days of Paul. These people are Christ-like, but MAGA people are not.

So the right is just more deceiving than the left. Whew. You get that? MAGA is more deceiving than the left Satanic people. The left comes right out and says they worship satan, and the right are worshiping the same God of this evil Age as Paul said they would, but the deceiving thing is they claim to be Christian and following God. But so did the Pharisees.

Now, please don't misunderstand me on this, Charlie Kirk was a son of God without the Holy Ghost. If he had the Holy Ghost, he would have seen the Message for this hour.

1 Corinthians 2 tells us that without having the Holy Ghost, you cannot understand the things of God. Even the Pharisees could read scripture that Jesus read, but couldn't rightfully divide the Word.

So most likely, Charlie will be there on the other side as a son of God, because he was doing what his heart was telling him. He said this stuff is all wrong, and he should have just started preaching instead of running this 40-million-dollar organization. All right?

But God took him so he would not accept Catholicism, which his wife was. So let's not get confused concerning where we are, concerning this Word. We don't want to be confused ourselves.

Most GOP people push beautiful scantily clothed women. Look at FOX News, and they even identify themselves as being Christian, when they are owned by Jews. But you know, they don't measure up to the values and opinions God has.

Remember, if we are to be Endoxazo, which means glorified in His saints, the word is Endoxa. Endoxazo means, En is in, Doxa is the glory, the Opinions and Values and Judgments of God.

And Zoe is in your life. So if the word of God is not in your life, you can have Parousia all day long. It's just mental. You can have Godhead all day long. Listen, I conversed with a church that had left the church of Christ over Godhead. They believed that there is one God, and He had a Son. And they believed almost every one of the scriptures I sent to them, and I sent about 365. They just didn't see that God was in Christ before the foundations of the world, that God was in that Logos that came out of God. They just saw, well, from the time of birth he was the Son of God. So they're a denomination, you can have the Godhead, right? And you're still in denomination. You know that?. Do you know that? You can have Parousia, right? And that just makes you say, well, if He's here, then we shouldn't take communion anymore. They don't realize that word was erchomai (1 Corinthians 11:26), not Parousia. You see, they get their own mind going in their own directions, and they don't take what God says, they only take what they say.

And they profess God, but deny God's Word. Oh, we're Christians. No, you're not. You're not Christ-like. Certainly, they are not Christians. Because they are not Christ-like.

Brother Branham continues, "The Word says she can't do it and be a Christian. (Well, that's right there. Thus saith the Lord, she can't do it and be a Christian.) She is even dishonorable and everything. How's God going to put an dishonorable thing in His Kingdom? No, sir, not at all. No, sir. Themselves, it shows their desire.

So don't be deceived by the political Right. Just stay out of the whole mess. They are like the Pharisees and Sadducees, who were the most religious people of their day, and yet they denied Christ (Who was God incarnated in His Son) and that to His Face.

So the Pharisees, who could put a pin through the scroll and they could tell you every letter that it hit going through the scroll. That's how studied they were. That's how messag-ized they were. That's how they could quote the quotes of the prophets, and yet they didn't have it.

They actually wanted to kill like Cain wanted to kill Abel. They wanted to kill the Son of God. God incarnate in his Son. They wanted to kill Him. That's why the two spirits would be so close that it would deceive the very elect if possible.

We certainly are not deceived by the left, they are devil worshippers and even claim to be so. They are nothing but a bunch of heathen sodomites to the core. But the Right claims to be Christians, and they are far, far from it.

Oh, I'm a Christian and have tattoos up and down their arm, on their legs, everything else. But I'm a Christian. You're not Christ-like, you drink alcohol. How many of those Fox News people, they all talk about their alcohol? They go out and they drink and this and that. But I don't smoke. That makes me a Christian. No, that just means you're a sensible person. You see how the things of the world, they cling to them. And yet, well, I'm a Christian. No, they're not. Now I'm thankful that at least they're passing laws. It makes it a little bit easier for us to live until we get out of here.

But as soon as we're out of here, listen, that little ring of Christians, the so-called Christians, will become... So I think the Word is livid by the things that we stand for. You talk to them about serpent seed, they'll kill you. Get the Christian right.

But Matthew 24:24 tells us in the end time “the two spirits would be so close it would deceive the very elect if it was possible”, but it isn’t possible because “we have been taught to discern between those who are right and those who are wrong. Malachi 3.”

Now, Brother Branham went on to say in PP. 80 “You can’t get a dove to eat with a buzzard, not at all. A dove doesn’t have any gall. He can’t eat that old carrion.”

Just be careful because you don’t understand, but you should. Brother Branham said the next thing basically is going to happen is that the church is going to come against the elect. No, they’re standing up for other denominational Christians. But you’re a cult to them. You don’t believe in the unlimited grace of God that they can live like a fornicating fool and still go to heaven. The Bible says fornicators will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

So just be thankful the administration is taking a more positive stance for Christianity for now, but be on guard because that will change, and one day they will hunt down anyone who disagrees with them like the Left is doing now. We’ll be out of here by then. So you just praise God that the pressure is off.

So how are you going to eat with the Right knowing they are just like the Pharisees that killed Christ? But just for now, spit out the seeds. Because eventually you won’t be able to agree with them as well.

So just sit back and watch, and don’t get involved with this world. Be thankful when you see policies that favor Christianity, but know one day those same policies will try to cancel you out as well.

But if you feel like that is what you must do, do it with the Scriptures alone. In other words, I agree when you quoted this scripture. I agree when you quoted the scripture. But it also says, see, Lucifer uses scriptures like the one, like the MAGA people do. The Democrats won’t even touch it.

But on the right, the MAGA people are saying, well, you know what? The Bible says this. The Bible says that. But Jesus said to Lucifer. But it also says this. It also says that.

Brother Branham, speaking of the dove eating along with the buzzards, said, “If he took a bite of it, (what the buzzard can eat) it would kill him, and he knows it; but a buzzard can eat most anything he wants to.”

Look, let me put it this way, the Right are religious, and can eat dove food and buzzard food, but a believer cannot do the same. Your kingdom is from above. That doesn't mean the Right won't do things that are helpful to us and the other believers.

But watch out, they will do one thing good and compromise, and do something evil. Why? That is the nature of politics. You can't trust the politician.

That means don't get too caught up in what they have to offer. Eat their cherry pie, but don't swallow their seeds.

Back to Satan's Eden, our prophet continues, "*See? He's got plenty of gall. So then you find out, that's the way it is with the world today, same thing. They're naked, blind, and don't know it."

Doesn't that describe the whole church age? They're all naked, blind, and don't know it. Only the elect know. The elect shall know in the end time. That's what Daniel said.

And really, that is the key right there. They don't know it. Had they known Who He was, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory.

That is what this Laodicean church age is all about.

Revelations 3:14 And unto the angel (The Messenger) of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

So, what is the Messenger to the Laodicean church saying to these Laodicean Church Age members, who are hearing him?

15 I know thy works, (so they are works-oriented, and didn't Jesus say "Lord, Lord, did we not do works in Your name?" You can't disagree with that, can you? And yet He Himself will say to them, "I never knew you. Depart from me into everlasting darkness.")

Whew! These are not Godless people like the left are. They even took God out of the platform of the Democratic Party in 2008. Those are the unbelievers that Brother Branham spoke about. These on the Right are the make-believers here that he spoke about.

Matthew 7:21 Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

So, this tells you that there will be many who are religious and even do things in the name of the Lord. But He never knew them. They were never in God's mind before the foundations of the world.

Brother Vayle said in Godhead No. 8, he said, two lords is a fallacy. We shouldn't preach it. But we do, because it's in the Bible. It says the Lord said to my Lord, but that's a wrong understanding. It means Elohim said unto Adonai, you can't make two lords, when God's prophet Moses said, Behold, O Israel, the Lord thy God is one Lord. You can't make two lords. When Jesus said, God is one, He is one Lord. You can't make them two lords. When Paul said, there's only one Lord and one faith, you just can't do it.

So if you're doing it, you're false yourself. Now the Bible continues. The problem is these people who will not quote the word accurately cannot rightly divide the word. They say, well, you can't eat meat in this day. And you say, Well, the Bible says in the last time. Well, that doesn't apply for this day. It even says the last day, but that doesn't apply to this day. They weren't in God's mind before the foundation of the world.

22 Many (that means not a few, but many) will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, (Two Lords,) Lord, Lord have we not prophesied (that means preached) in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? (Drive out demons – like getting that transvestite devil to leave so they can become normal again) *and in thy name done many wonderful works?

Let me show you this from the Translation called the Message Bible and see what it says about this:

21-23 "Knowing the correct password—saying 'Master, Master,' (I guess Lord-Lord is the password. We got it. We got it. We got two lords. We got it. It's a password. It's a password, and it means that I have it. I know I'm in the inner circle.) 'Knowing the correct password—saying 'Master, Master,' (that's what Lord means.) for instance—isn't going to get you anywhere with me. What is required is serious obedience—doing what my Father wills.

I can see it now—at the Final Judgment, thousands strutting up to me and saying, (And I've seen them in this message's chat-rooms, and they just make fun of people that don't understand. It shows that they were strutting.) 'Master, we preached the Message, (That's what the Message Bible says.) 'Master, we preached the Message, we bashed the demons, our super-spiritual projects had everyone talking.'

And do you know what I am going to say? 'You missed the boat. All you did was use me to make yourselves important. You don't impress me one bit. You're out of here.'

Like Brother Vayle said, a lot of these preachers live like kings, and he said all they're in it for is the money. That's why I don't take a penny as a salary. I live on a housing allowance. That's it. But they will have millions in the bank.

I'd rather give my millions to the brothers around the world. And this church has done that for over 21 years, actually. We gave out $1.8 million. That's a lot of money, all right. But we're giving it out. I don't keep it. I don't have several BMWs or Mercedes Benz or whatever you spent $80,000 on one of those cars when the brothers and sisters in your church are driving Chevys and Fords, and maybe what's the German car? I've got the VW Passat, and that's a pretty cheap car. I mean, it's under 30,000 Dollars. But he says, 'You missed the boat.'

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. You workers of iniquity. I never knew you. You weren't in the mind of God. You're just a religious hack.

So back to what Jesus was saying of this age in Revelation 3:15 that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

Brother Branham said, If I weren't for this message, I'd be against it. I'd stand better with God if I were against it than if I'm just kind of lazy about it. Well, I kind of believe it, but I kind of don't.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. That's God's Word. I will spew thee out of the Word, you never were in My book of Life.

Look, you are either sold out to Christ, the Word alone, or to the Right-wing establishment. Paul was either sold out to the Hebrew religion, or he was sold out to God. You know what, he was hot for his religion. God said, Well, now I can deal with a man that's hot for the religion, but he's got a wrong understanding. So then God took him off his high horse, and God corrected him. And now he was hot for the right word.

Moses, the same way. Moses struck the man dead because he was whipping a Hebrew child. God said, I can use that man. He's got some fire. I can use it, but I got to train him to use the fire for me.

You are either sold out to Christ, the Word alone, or to the Right-wing establishment.

You can't be both. One student was rudely rebuked for not being MAGA because he disagreed with allowing Transvestites to be in the MAGA movement. He was told, Then you are not MAGA. That's what he said. That's what was said to him. He said, but God's word is against it. There's hope for that kid.

As if being MAGA is all we live for. Like that is the only way. And all opposed to the Administration in any way, kicks them out from claiming to be MAGA. But the young man said, "But God's Word is opposed to it."

And instead of saying OK, I disagree with you, but we can still be MAGA, but he didn't do that. The speaker literally rebuked him for saying that.

So, the speaker took the side of being Transvestites over being obedient to the Word. As long as you are a MAGA transvestite. That's denominationalism in its approach. It stinks. It's like saying, well, you can live any old way you want, but you know what?

You preach the Parousia, you believe that Parousia, and we'll accept you into our little cult. But you can fornicate, you can mess around, you can do different things like that. That's okay. But we stand for the Parousia, or we stand for the Godhead. And so you got the Godhead right. So we're going to accept your flaws. We're going to accept the fact that you're messing around with our daughters. I can't understand how people have sunk so low as to become denominational in their thinking.

But the scripture warns us: "Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelief".

And the Scripture in Revelations 3 continues, 17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

Now it is one thing to talk to these juvenile delinquents and tell them to use reason and common sense, but it is another thing to point them to Calvary and tell them that without Christ, they will perish.

You can talk a transvestite out of being a transvestite, and he's still a transvestite in his mind, and he's still a lost creature, but you show him the Word and let God deal with him. And if he is one of God's sons, God will deal with him.

Why teach them of how to better themselves in the here and now, without pointing them to eternity and "Knowing the power of His resurrection"?

Why tell them being LGBTQ is wrong without telling them they will perish eternally? And doesn't the "L" stand for Lesbian and the "G" stand for Gay, yet MAGA is full of them.

Come on, they're in the administration. The guy who's in charge of the treasury is an LGBTQ person. He's gay. Now I didn't say he's not a nice man. I've never met the man, but that has nothing to do with it. He's against God's word.

They say, Oh, you are wrong because our group says so? No, you are wrong because God's Word says so, and you will suffer for ages and ages, in agony before you are finally annihilated.

You say God made me this way? And blame God for your messed-up mind. Like Brother Vayle said, their minds are all muddled up. He said, Well, Brother Branham preached his message, and it was muddled. He said, No, your mind is muddled. You can't see through it.

The Bible, God's Word, says, "How can the clay say to the potter, Why did you make me this way? Does not the potter have power over the clay to make it the way He wants to make it." Then why can't you accept the way God made you?

Then why did the potter make you one thing, and you want to be another? Can't you see that it is twisted and perverted?

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye salve, that thou mayest see.

So, it is apparent that they do not see, and they are even naked and don't even know it. That's insanity. Isn't this the end-time full of insanity? Aren't at least 50%... Actually, I think only the bride has the mind of Christ. So only the bride has mental clarity. Only the bride has the Doxa of God, the thoughts, the Opinions of God. Everyone else is insane. I can give you a quote for that.

So, the age itself is religious, yet blind and naked, and they have to be totally insane because they do not even know their own condition.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. He is telling us the age needs to repent, that means He's calling us to a mind change. We have to be changed from our mind to His mind.

Don't you see this is part of the Rapture process? You have to have a mind change before God will give you a Glorified body, because you wouldn't know what to do with a body that cannot die.

Like brother Vayle said, I mentioned that earlier, 40 years ago, "you have to have a mind that is capable of handling this glorified body, or you would zoom around the world traveling like a thought dismantling the nuclear bombs here and nuclear bombs there and really mess up the plan of God." So God's waiting for us to have His mind. Let this mind be in Christ, which was in Me.

20 *Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, (if any man understands what I am saying, while I'm knocking at the church) and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. In other words, the word will be like the barrel that never went empty. It'll just keep coming and coming and coming, because you understand what He's saying

This is my promise: if any man will understand the things I am telling you, I will come into Him and will continuously feed Him my word.

21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

Now back to Satan's Eden, and Brother Branham says, "Satan did it by the woman's lust for knowledge, for sex, which she chose by her own choosing."

Isn't that what the transvestites are doing? Well, I don't want to have relations with the woman. I want to have it with a man who's a homosexual. Now, to justify it, I'll have him dress up like a her. And now it's okay.

And isn't that exactly what the juveniles are choosing today? They are not satisfied with reality, who they really are, they are caught up into becoming an alternative reality. So they transition themselves to be what they want to be instead of what God wants them to be.

Go back to my sermon from the Unveiling of God series, No. 204, I showed you how they wanted to make everyone Trans-human, you know the Jab, just like the Beast in the beginning wanted to make humanity into a beast-man, by hybridizing man, which is a trans-human. They're doing the same thing. It's repeating.

81 Now notice, it was Eve who led Adam to the wrong, and it was the woman who took off her clothes before Adam took off his. See? It's a woman, always. It's always been. It is still the same way.

It's the church that leads the man astray. It's the church (See?), That leads the men who want to be sons of God; it's a woman, the church. Not the Bible, God, for the Bible is Man.

Now, listen, this is as much heresy to the Right as it is to the Left.

Oh, yeah, the Word was made flesh, and He was a Man. See? The Bible is Man; the church is woman. See? It isn't the church, the Bible that leads the man astray. It's the church that leads him astray.

It's the church he went naked with, not the Bible. See? No indeed. The Bible tells him he's naked. Yes, sir.

Now, notice how by sex (desire of sex), she lusted for knowledge to know what this was, and whether this fruit was good or not, and she did it.

So can't you see we are back to people choosing what sex they want instead of God choosing the right way for them.

Now, it is no mystery that the killer of Charlie was partnered with another man who transitioned to being a woman. How do you become something you're not? And yet referred to himself as a "furry". Part beast, part human. That is trans-talk for bestiality. And that is what this transvestite stuff is all about. Back to the Garden of Eden, where a beast had relations with a woman.

It began in the garden with the beast seducing the woman. So a beast got the woman pregnant. The Beast, as in Bestiality, we are back to the same conditions as in the beginning. The End has got to be very, very close.

And that was what Charlie was up against, but not knowing it, because he was caught in between doing God a service and doing the church a service, and we will never know this side of the resurrection, which got him killed. We won't know that.

Was God taking him home and out of this mess so he wouldn't be here for the great tribulation? I think so, but we just don't know for certain.

Let's bow our heads in prayer.

Gracious Father. We're not saying anything contrary to our brother who was killed. But knowing Lord, like Samson, Samson was killed because he dallied with the church. And dallying with the woman, the church got him into the condition he was in, so that he could be killed. And I think this was the experience that our brother went through. And so Lord, we just pray for everyone that none of our children would be tainted by this evil that we see presented in this day, nor the evil of the MAGA that they wouldn't get so festered with MAGA's spirit on them that they would become perverts as well to your Scripture, in Jesus' Name we pray. Amen. Amen.
