Water Baptism and the Importance of Repentance

Brian Kocourek

January 20th, 2008

This morning we will continue with Brother Branham's sermon on "The Spoken Word is the Original Seed", and we'll pick up at paragraph 3 where he says, Now I want to announce that immediately, I will try to speak up till twelve o'clock, and then after... And I'll dismiss at twelve. And that'll give everyone time to go get something to eat. During this time the minister, the pastor, Brother Neville here, will have a baptismal service during this time. And you people that slip out and get something to eat and then we'll return back, and I'll try to be at the pulpit exactly two o'clock, and then go on this afternoon.

Now, although we still have not gotten to his Message, and we are just examining some opening comments, I want you notice that Br. Branham is mentioning here about a baptismal service that will take place between the two services that day.

Now, baptism is one of the three ordinances that our Saviour left us. It is the first of the ordinances that he taught the disciples, although he never baptized disciples himself, he left that up to others to do for Him. John 4: 1-2 When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, 2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples, 3 He left Judea, and departed unto Galilee)

So we see that as far as water Baptism is concerned, all his disciples were baptized in water, and yet he himself baptized none of them. Yet there is another Baptism that Jesus did Baptize the disciples with, and that is the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. John even prophesied that one greater than he would baptize with the Holy Spirit in the following Scriptures:

Matthew 3: 11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but He that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

Mark 1: 8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

Luke 3: 16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:

John 1: 26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth One among you, whom ye know not;

John 1: 33 And I knew Him not: but He that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon Whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, the same is He which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

Now, Although Jesus Himself never baptized any with water, yet he had his disciples do so. But this sort of baptism was not something new to Israel. Baptism by water was synonymous with what Israel as a nation had experienced in the red sea.

Paul alludes to this in 1 Corinthians 10:1 Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; 2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; 3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat; 4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ. 5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. 6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. 8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. 9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. 10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. 12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. 15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

We can see a form of ritual purification by water in the book of Leviticus s 11, 14 and 15 and in The Book of Numbers especially 19 where washing with water by immersing the body was symbolic of the cleansing process. Although the term "baptism" was not used by the Jews to describe purification by water, the word mikvah was used instead to describe immersion. In Jewish history immersion in water was used for ritual purification and for restoration to the condition of "purity" for certain circumstances.

For example, Jews who became ritually defiled by contact with a corpse had to use the Mikvah before being allowed to participate in the Temple. Also, Immersion was required for converts to Judaism as part of their conversion, And Immersion in the mikvah represented not only purification, but restoration and qualified the person to be able to fully participate in the religious community much like Christian baptism qualifies Christians to participate in Communion and foot washing. Although unlike Christian water Baptism, the mikvah is repeated over and over, again. Much like the sacrifice which is repeated often, yet we have a once for all sacrifice that need never be repeated.

The Apostle Paul comments on this in Hebrews 10:10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. So we have a once for all sacrifice that needs not be repeated as it was in the Temple by the Priests. And Paul goes on to say, ... 11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

So you see, Paul speaks of this often times and daily process which they also did in water baptism, which the Jews called mikvah. Now, let's continue with what Paul is teaching us here.

12 But this man, after he (the man) had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, (sins plural, all our sins, past, present and future.) sat down on the right hand of God; 13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. 14 For by one offering He (the Son of God) hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. 15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before, 16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; 17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. 18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

Now, I would like to stop right here for a moment and I want to ask you a question. Do you believe this is the Word of God to us? Do you believe that God has forever washed away your sins, all of them, past, present and future? Then why do you keep going back to Him and asking for forgiveness for things you have already asked forgiveness for? Now, that is not to say we shouldn't apologize and make right when we err. But when you have asked forgiveness and you take God at His Word, then you need not ask over and over again, unless you do not believe you were forgiven in the first place. You see, I think we need a better understanding of total justification. Brother Branham said to be justified is as though you never did do it in the first place. Well, if you didn't do it in the first place, then why are you going back again and again to ask forgiveness for the same thing?

If you didn't do it, then you didn't do it. I mean once the sinner has become conscious of what God has done for them through the shed blood of His Son, then what are we dredging up old sin for anyway?

*19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, 20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; 21 And having an high priest over the house of God; 22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. In other words, water baptism. 23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)

And if He is faithful that promised, then to keep going back and asking again and again shows you don't believe that He is faithful that promised. So if you are going to doubt anything, doubt your doubts, and believe what God has said about you.

Now, I don't want to make this a history lesson, although I enjoy history, but let me just say a few more things about the Jewish right of water baptism which they called their form of immersion by water.

Immersion was required for both men and women when converting to Judaism. There were three prerequisites for a proselyte coming into Judaism: Circumcision, baptism, and sacrifice. Immersion is also required for several other reasons but we won't get into those at this time.

Paul tells us how we are to be baptized in his letter to the Colossians 2: 12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. Now, when you bury someone, you don't sprinkle them with dirt, you bury them under the dirt.

Again we see in Romans 6: 4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. So again we see the baptism in water represent our dying out to self, and we are buried with Him in His death.

And we saw also that baptism was by immersion in the Old Testament as well as in the New Testament. It was not sprinkling like the Catholic would want you to believe. I don't know how the word buried can be associated with sprinkling, can you?

Anyway, it is immersion, and if so, then why Immersion? Well, the very word Mikveh was first used in the book of Genesis 1:10 where we see, And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good. And this gathering together is the Hebrew word Mikveh used for the first time. So we are looking at living waters, deep waters which he called the sea.

The term Mikveh in Hebrew literally means any gathering of waters, but is specifically used in Jewish law for the waters or bath for the ritual immersion. The Mishnah tells us that Ezra decreed that each male should immerse himself before praying or studying. Some Jewish groups such as the Essenes observed ritual immersion daily to assure readiness for the coming of the Messiah. So we see that the ancient Jew used the Mikveh as a process of spiritual purification and cleansing, and as I said was the way seen by the Jews as no strange thing when John the Baptist came forth calling people to repentance and baptism by immersion as an outward show of an inward work of grace.

In fact that is how the Apostle Peter also described water baptism.

1 Peter 3: 21 The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ: So it is the identifying of ourselves with His death burial and resurrection. That is why we repent and then are baptized or fully immersed in water. It is to represent that we have genuinely and truly died to self.

Acts 2:36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. 37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? 38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. 39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. 40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. 41 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

Now, we see here that there are two very important elements to be taken seriously in water baptism. First of all it calls for repentance which is a change of the mind. A person could be baptized every hour of their life but without repentance they just go down a dry sinner and come up a wet one.

On the wings of a dove 65-1128E P:96 Now, the Lord can show me a vision; He could tell me what's the matter with each one of them. I can prove that to you (See?); you know that. But that don't heal them. That doesn't heal them. No, it's got to be something drop in them. See? And I hope...Like I could go up here take each one of you and baptize you in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ; that won't remit your sins. No, no. No, I don't believe in water baptism in the Name of Jesus Christ unto regeneration; I believe the Blood is regeneration (See?) now, not the waters. But, see, I could baptize and baptize, but you only go down a dry sinner, come up a wet one (See?) until you have thoroughly repented. Repent, and then be baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ. See? And that's where I different with the Oneness movement. Not baptizing to regeneration, no; I believe it's the Blood that cleanses, not the water. See? Repentance, and then be baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Key to the door 62-1007 P:60 And that's the reason I do use the word baptism in the Name of Jesus Christ, but not to regeneration. Now, the Pentecostal, United Pentecostal church baptizes in the Name of Jesus Christ for regeneration. I don't believe that. They can do it if they want to. But I believe that Peter said repent first. Water don't remit sins. The Church of Christ preaches it that way. But I believe that repentance, godly sorrow... "Repent" means "turn around, go back, you missed the mark, start over again." Do that first. And your baptism in water is only an outward profession of something that's been done inside of you, that you have accepted Christ as your Saviour.

You know that is where they always miss the mark, is that they don't realize the Gspel is all about repentance, a changing of the mind. Let's just look at what the scripture teaches concerning repentance, and I want you to notice how often it says this.

2 Peter 3: 9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. So you see the Lord desires that we all repent.

And notice, if the Lord loves you he wants you to repent. Revelation 3 : 19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

Revelation 3: 3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

Revelation 2: 5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. So we see that judgment is all that is left if we do not repent.

2 Timothy 2: 25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; You see, Repentance comes from God and leads us to the truth. So repentance is a changing of the mind, from unbelief to belief, and from un-right-wiseness to right-wiseness.

2 Corinthians 7: 10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. Notice, the Scripture does not teach that Godly sorrow is repentance, but that it will work repentance. Just being sorry is not repentance, because the Bible speaks of having works fit for repentance.

2 Corinthians 7: 9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing. Notice that it is not enough to be sorrowful, but that the sorrow leads to a change of the mind.

Acts 26: 20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. So there are works which are meet for repentance. In other words, what good does it do to say you changed your mind, unless your actions show that you indeed have.

Acts 20: 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. Here we see that the motive of preaching was to cause repentance, which is a change of the mind. Then what good does it do to preach what everyone already knows. You've got to bring forth repentance, that is what the True ministry of God will produce in the True Five Fold.

Acts 19: 4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. So we see even John's baptism was unto repentance.

Acts 17: 30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: There was a time when God turned his eyes, but now, there is no more excuse for sin when he has given us opportunity to be filled with His own sinless spirit.

Acts 13: 24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. Again we see that John's preaching was for one purpose and that is repentance. To get the people to repent.

Acts 11: 18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life. You see, it's all about repentance, God granting us repentance which leads unto Life, eternal Life.

Acts 8: 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. Forgiveness comes through genuine repentance.

Acts 5: 31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. That was the whole purpose of Christ coming to Israel.

Acts 3: 19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; repent so your sins may be blotted out. What a promise. And this Scripture is fulfilled in this very hour when the Presence of the Lord is come. And why is repentance so important?

Luke 24: 47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Because repentance is what brings us under the blood of the lamb and remits our sins.

Well, then what about those who are not willing to repent? Luke 13: 3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Luke 13: 5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

Luke 11: 32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. And if they were saved by repenting then, what about when the Holy Ghost is come.

Jesus said, Luke 5: 32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

But he also said, Luke 3: 8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Oh, how many young people have been raised up in this Message and have no clue as to what the Message. I got an email from a young man the other day, two of them, and he proceeded to tell me how I was a false witness of the message, and that there weren't any true five fold ministry and we should only listen to Br. Branham. He said you preach on a Greek word Parousia and brother Branham never used that word so you are adding to what he said. And he proceeded to tell me that he had been in the Message 21 years and that his father had been in longer than him before he died. So I figured this young man was 21 years old. And I wasn't going to fuss with him, because how do you tell someone they need to be born again. I just sent a reply and said, brother Branham never used the Greek word Parousia but he used the English equivalent Presence over 4,400 times. And I said, son you need to grow up.

Haven't heard back from him. You see, they need to repent. They think they are going to be all right because they believe God sent a prophet, but they deny what he taught. Why? because they haven't repented. They haven't changed their minds.

Luke 3: 3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins;

Mark 6: 12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent. You see, the ministry is all about changing the minds of men towards God.

Mark 2: 17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Mark 1: 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

Mark 1: 4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

Matthew 9: 13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Matthew 4: 17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Look, Jesus came to call man to repentance. And for men to show it by their actions.

Matthew 3: 8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

Matthew 3: 2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

But what if they are not willing to repent? Then what? Then there is nothing left but judgment.

Revelation 16: 11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

Revelation 16: 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

Revelation 9: 21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

Revelation 9: 20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

Revelation 2: 22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

Revelation 2: 21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

Revelation 2: 16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

Hebrews 12: 17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

Hebrews 6: 6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

So I hope you can see the importance of repentance in baptism. Because the water does not wash you clean, it is only an outward display of what has already taken place in a repentant heart. That is why we see John came forth baptizing men and the purpose was to show forth publicly their repentance.

We see this is Mark 1: 4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. And again we see this testimony of repentance in Matthew 3: 6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

We also see this in Mark 16: 16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. So a change of the mind is essential, here. Because we see what happens when they do not repent.

Luke 7: 30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

Now, Peter said there is a name that is involved here. He said, first of all you must repent which means you must change your thinking, and then you must be baptized in the NAME of the Lord Jesus Christ, and then you will receive the baptism of the Holy Ghost.

The Catholic church and her daughters want to argue this point and say that the words of Peter are not as important as the words of Jesus himself, and they will quote you Matthew 28: 19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: But as brother Branham taught us, father is not a name, it is a title, son is not a name it is a title and holy Spirit is not a name, it is a title. So the name is what we are baptized into. But if you are baptized using those titles, and then they say, which is the Lord Jesus Christ you might just want to reconsider being baptized over again.

So the name is of utmost importance, because without the name you aren't going to receive the Holy Ghost.

God of this evil age 65-0801M P:112 And when Jesus said, "Go baptize them in the Name of the Father, Son, Holy Ghost," setting that there to blind the unbeliever... Watch. Why didn't Peter carry that out word by word? He had to. If a man is baptized in the titles Father, Son, Holy Ghost, he's never been baptized at all; he has no name. Father's no name; Son's no name, and Holy Ghost is no name. Holy Ghost is what It is, like I'm a human. It is the Holy Ghost. Father's a title; I'm a father. Son is a title; I'm a son. Human is a title; that's what I am. But my name is William Branham. And the Name of the Father, Son, Holy Ghost is the Name of Jesus Christ. Jesus said, "I come in My Father's Name?" What is the Father's Name? Any son comes in his father's name, and the Father's Name is Jesus Christ. See? See what I mean?

Look, it can be proven by history that no one was ever baptized in those titles until the Catholic church made it so 300 years after the church had been baptizing the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. That is just a catholic creed and all her daughters too.

Christian Baptism is not to be done in titles. The whole purpose for Christian baptism is not just repentance like the Jew who looked for Messiah that is just the beginning. Baptism is an identification of our death to self, and our dying with Christ and our being raised with Him. Baptism done correctly in this hour must be done in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. If you are not baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, you must be baptized over again,

Acts 18: 24 And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus. 25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. 26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly. 27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace: 28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ. 19:1 And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, 2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. 3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. 4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on 5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

What shall I do with Jesus 63-1124M P:153 If you want to be baptized, if you have took the titles Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, I say this with reverence and respect, but to my way of seeing it, you are not baptized. You're not, for you haven't carried out what He said. He said, "Baptize them in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost." If you just had those titles called over you... He never said, "Go call these titles, go call these names." It never was done in the Bible. It never was done that way. It was baptize the way Jesus said, "In the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost," which is Jesus Christ.

COLOSSIANS 3:17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. So if you are not baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ, then you are not doing everything in that name like you were told to do.

Palmerworm locust caterpillar 59-0823 P:117 There's some baptized in no name at all. They had to come and be baptized over again, 'fore they get the Holy Ghost. How many knows that? Paul passed through the upper coasts of Ephesus, he found the Baptists. They had a good pastor; he was a converted lawyer: Apollos. And he said to them, "Have you received the Holy Ghost since you believed?" They said, "We know not whether there be any Holy Ghost." Said, "Then how was you baptized?" It says in the King James, "unto what." Read it in the original; it says "how." "Unto what" means the same thing. "How was you baptized?" They said, "We've been baptized by John, the same man baptized Jesus." That's a good baptizing. "Walked out in the water, the same one that baptized... John. "Why", Paul said, "That won't work anymore. That ain't no good no more. He's done come, been crucified. 'Cause John baptized unto repentance, not remission of sins, saying you should believe on Him Who's come, Jesus Christ." And when they heard this, they walked out into the water and was rebaptized again in the Name of Jesus Christ. Paul laid his hands on them; the Holy Ghost come on them; they prophesied and spoke in tongues. That right? Paul constrained men who'd been baptized by the same man that baptized Jesus, told them they'd have to be baptized over, because they wasn't baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus. I've got a right to say the same thing if it's the same doctrine.

Now, let me show you some other thins brother Branham said that point out how important the name is.

Going beyond the camp 64-0719E P:9 There's not one Scripture in the Bible where anybody was ever baptized in any other way but in the Name of Jesus Christ. The commission of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost is only, "Go ye therefore, teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, Son, Holy Ghost," not call this title over them, but baptize them in the Name of the Father, Son, Holy Ghost, which is the Lord Jesus Christ. Everybody in the Bible was baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ, and the Bible said that whosoever shall take one word out of It or add one word to It in any way, woe unto them. So I have enough I have to fear about besides adding something or taking it from the Scripture. It's got me in trouble many times, but I stay right there. He is my Defense. It's caused me to separate from a many a friend. They've parted from me because of that. But just as long as I keep this Friend here, the Lord Jesus... And He is the Word. No matter, rugged be the path, hard is the way, He come the same way. And if they called the Master of the house Beelzebub, how much more will they call those of His disciples.

Godhead Explained 61-0119A P:71 Every Scripture in the Bible, every person in the Bible, was baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ. I'll take any man, any historian, to this task: if you can show me one speck of Scripture where anybody was ever baptized in the Bible (new church, 'cause they wasn't baptized in the Old Testament, but in the New Testament), where any persons was ever baptized in the name of the Father, Son, Holy Ghost--one place that that was ever called over them, Father, Son and Holy Ghost--then I'll compromise.

Godhead Explained 61-0119A P:14 And then, every person in the Bible was baptized after that, was baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. And those who had already been baptized by John, had to come and be rebaptized again in the name of Jesus Christ before they got the Holy Ghost. Well, I said, "See, you're not zeroed there. There's something out..." "Now, if we believe the Bible to be God's infallible Word, we can't make it splatter all over a piece of paper and then be zeroed. You understand me? It's got to hit the target or it ain't hitting. If it's out, it's out. Well, why did Peter turn around and do something Jesus told him not to do, and then God recognize it and give them the Holy Ghost, when Jesus said, "Baptize them in the name of the Father, Son, Holy Ghost." And Peter said, "No, baptize in the name of Jesus." Now, you, you can't make that hit the target. See? Now, there's something wrong somewhere, sisters. See? Either the one lied, or... Which one lied?. Which one was it? Now, to me that just won't work. Just like it is by...Is the baptism of the Holy Ghost evidence speaking in tongues, or is it not? Some says, "Yes," and some says "No." What's the Scriptures say about it? It's got to zero! I find there where some did speak with tongues and some didn't. Well, what is it?

Now, to show you just how powerful that name is, let me read these next two quotes to you from brother Branham. From his sermon, Who is this 59-0510E P:35 That young woman that walked into the baptistery this morning, that three weeks ago, dying with sarcomas cancer. Lives right here on Maple Street, Mrs. Batey. And I asked three doctors that was with her; she didn't have one chance to live, with four or five little children, and my mother trying to take care of them. Mama said, "Bill, she'll never come home again." And I went out to where she was, and the Lord Jesus spoke, "THUS SAITH THE LORD, if she will go to the church and promise to be baptized into the Name of the Lord Jesus, and will serve God, she'll go home well." And I asked her, "Will you do this, lady?" And she said, "All that you say, I'll do it." Immediately the pains left. Three days later, she was home, and the doctors can't find one trace of that cancer.

And again from Water baptism 59-0329M P:73 And Sister Weaver, as you're standing here, and a witness that that... And many of you here who knows that, when you were rebaptized again in the Name of Jesus Christ... Some of you out there with cancer and couldn't get well, when you were rebaptized in Jesus' Name, the cancer left you. Mrs. Weaver's one of them. And the lady across the street there is one of them, that it did it.
