

Unveiling of God no 136
Knowing the Message by the Word

January 12, 2020

Brian Kocourek, Pastor

This morning we will continue our study of br. Branham's sermon The Unveiling of God and we will pick up at paragraph 135 where he says, 135 As Doctor Lee Vayle is writing this famous book; I want you to see it after while. Brother Vayle's here, is on the grounds somewhere. I seen him outside; I don't think he can get in. But he's writing a book there, and very astounding, of the Laodicean age. And I want you to... It'll be off the presses pretty soon, so we're taking the last reading of it now. And was writing, we was discussing it in there (See?), about a...

136 Everyone, they was always come to me, said, "Brother Branham, them seven thunders that the voice thundered, and he said 'Write it not (See?), but close it up,'" said, "that'll be seven thunders that will be revealed in the last days? See, seven thunders that'll tell us?" Now, don't that sound real good? See? But watch what you're talking about when you say that. He said, "See that you write it not." See? These seven thunders uttered their voices (See?), and He said, "Don't write that (See?), but It's to be sealed up in the Book until the last days."

137 Now, someone has been, many has been saying to me, and theologians said, "Brother Branham, if the Lord God..." Said, "If with your experience that the Lord has given you for His people," humbly saying this, said, "you'd be eligible to write a Bible yourself, your Word that God has manifested." I said, "That might be true." See, he was trying to catch me. See? And I said, "But, you see, I couldn't do that." He said, "Why couldn't? You have all the qualifications." I said, "But, you look, one word cannot be added or taken away." See? And he said, "Well then, them seven thunders (You see?)," said, "wouldn't them seven thunders blasting out, won't that be a revelation be give to some man?" I said, "No, sir, it would be adding something to It or taking something from It." It's all revealed in there, and the seven seals opened up the revelation of what that was. See? He's still in the Word. You see, you can't get out of that Word. It won't leave the Word. And God's Spirit will never leave that Word. It'll stay right with the Word, blinding some and open the eyes of others. It'll always do that.

Now, it is remarkable that we have an entire denomination who claim to believe the Message but who teach their own version of the seven Thunders. And there are some brethren who actually believe there will be seven men who are to come along and each will be a thunder at the end time.

I just can't understand why men just can't believe the word of God's vindicated prophet and eave that stuff alone. But it seem there is an enticing spirit that gets on men who claim to be ministers of God and they seem to want something to do with the Message so as to give it their own slant to it.

It comes in many forms and many strange doctrines.

But we are warned of this by the Apostle Paul that this sort of stuff would take place at the end time, so we must be very careful to weigh everything we hear and read by the Word of God.

1 Timothy 4:1 *Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, (or distinctively) that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, (not from Faith, but from The Faith, which we spoke on last Sunday night is just one Faith and The Faith is the Faith of the son of God, His Faith. And it has to do with understanding the Doctrine of Christ, that there is one God and he had a son, and sons. And Paul goes on to tells us how they will depart from the Revelation of Jesus Christ. He says) “giving heed to seducing spirits, (That is misleading and deceiving spirits. And the reason why the word seducing spirits was used is because a seducing spirit doesn’t make you go against your own will, but lures you by your own lusts into deception. So you are misled because you want to be misled. You lean to your own understanding rather than stick with “Thus saith the Lord.” And this seductive spirit comes in the way of doctrines (or teachings) of devils; (These are demonic beings who are influenced by demon spirit and therefore they are used to influence other Like these televangelists which with the technology today they have become “youtube” preachers.*

I have seen their influence on some of those who have fallen away. I tried to warn some of them but they just regarded my warning as I am just judgmental. Well, we will see how judgmental that was when they stand before the white throne and have to give an answer for walking away from the True Word of God backed up by vindication.

We stand with the scriptures and the end time prophet here, and don’t believe in listening to these televangelists who love the wages of unrighteousness as the apostle Paul called those kind of preachers out in his day.

I have always preached that if you do not understand what the prophet of God said by taking it to the Scriptures, then you don’t understand what he is said.

But the Apostle Paul said in verse of those who fall away 2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

Now, hypocrisy is pretending to have some form of character or standing that you do not have. It is deceit and dissimulation, it is acting in a feigned or pretentious way.

Like those who claim to be in the know because they fished or hunted with the prophet. Or even those who claim to have talked to him and got some inside scoop.

And that is what brother Branham is driving at in this last paragraph we read. Men who think you can add to or take away from the scriptures just because you have a ministry where the supernatural of God is on display. They tried to get him to say yes, that he could add to or take away and he would not take the bait. So we must stick with the Word brother.

Then Paul tells us some of these doctrine which identify the Catholic Church. He says, 3 “Forbidding to marry, (well, that is not only what the Roman Catholic church teaches about its ministers, but that is what the Roman pagan church of Diana believed with its women priests who had to remain virgins, Then Paul adds,) and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

Now, that he said was a doctrine of devils, but we actually have some in this message that say that verse is not for the end time.

Well, excuse me but Paul said Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, by giving heed to these doctrines of devils, and then he names them and not eating meat is one of these doctrines of devils.

I know people say when you have cancer you should give up eating meat, but everyone of them that did that died of their cancer that I know who tried it. “God is the Healer of all our diseases”. That is what the Bible says. And one sister who decided to trust God for her healing and died was made fun of because she did not stop eating meat.

I’m sorry but if you disrupt your eating habits with any fad diet, you will disrupt the cancer for a season because it has to change its source of food as you change yours. So all these diets are pure nonsense, and don’t have any Bible foundation to them. They are just hope so, instead of placing your trust wholly in the hands of God. And if God so chooses to take you then that is His choosing.

So Paul tells us to sanctify the food we eat with the Word of God and prayer.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if (and that is a big IF) it be received with thanksgiving: 5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the Words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

Of course God will call you a good and faithful minister but those teaching the doctrines of devils will not say that about you, because you are destroying their power over the people.

The only thing here Paul tells us to refuse is 7 But refuse profane (that words is heathenism, superstitious beliefs) and old wives' fables, (fictions, made up stuff) and exercise thyself rather unto godliness which is Godlikeness. (On other words be like Christ, be conformed to His image. And that he goes on to say will not come by what you can do in the flesh or with the flesh.)

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but god-like-ness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

So what are some of these doctrines of devils being taught at the end time?

Well, some teach the false doctrine that the Five-fold ministry of God is no longer supposed to preach, but are rather now supposed to just play tapes. They call it Push play. That is false doctrine. Why can I say this with positive assurance it is false? Because no where does the Bible teach that? No where can you show me where God’s prophet taught that. He never even alluded to it. You can’t believe that unless you are willing to take passages of Scripture or quotes from God’s prophet and twist them into pretzels so much that the actual quote becomes completely foggy in its intentions.

Irenaeus said they add here and they take away there and by cutting and twisting they make their doctrines to somehow seem plausible to the simple minded.

Some believe the false teaching that men have two souls, and so that doctrine seems to lead to polygamy which is another false doctrine.

Then there are those who believe the son of God was not pre-incarnate. They seem to be to believe that the son of God only came into existence when Mary gave birth to him.

Then there are those who believe that Mary gave birth to God and they have more in common with the Catholic Church than any other group who claim to believe the Message.

Then there are those who believe the Pastor is the husband of the church, and some that I know of have even performed wedding ceremonies in the church between every person in that church and the pastor, and even exchanged rings.

Then we have those who believe the second coming has already taken place and we are now living in the millennium.

Then there are some who believe since 1963 there is no more mercy and Christ is off the Mercy seat.

And there are those who believe brother Branham is coming back with a world wide ministry.

Then there are some who believe you have to set under a certain brother because he fished with the prophet and still others believe you got to follow the brother that went hunting with the prophet, and still others believe you have to follow the brother who he is related to the prophet and somehow by believing these false doctrine people somehow believe that makes you a chosen one and that gives you an extra something that will get you into the rapture somehow.

I think we could go on and on showing how far from the Message men have swerved because they do not take the Message back to the Bible and prove it by the Word of God.

Irenaeus who was the Second Church age messenger and spent most of his time combating the heresies which began in the first church age when the people left their first love, said in his treatise against the heresies from Chapter VIII: How the Valentinians pervert the Scriptures to support their own pious opinions. Such, then, is their system, which neither the prophets announced, nor the Lord taught, nor the apostles delivered, but of which they boast that beyond all others they have a perfect knowledge.

Now, I would like to add here that he is about to tell us how they pervert the scriptures.

He said, “They gather their views from other sources than the Scriptures; and, to use a common proverb, they strive to weave ropes of sand,

Now, before we move ahead, I would like to ask, how can you weave ropes of sand? You can't. By its very nature when you pick up sand it falls apart. And if it were possible to make a rope of sand by pressing it together in some way, you still could not bend it, because the moment you tried to, it would disintegrate.

And so Irenaeus has painted a picture in our minds of the futility of these people endeavoring to make something work and fit that has no possibility of working or fitting.

And then he adds, “while they endeavor to adapt with an air of probability to their own peculiar assertions.

And I want you to get what he is saying here, because this is the key to understanding why they fall for doctrines of devils.

“while they endeavor to adapt with an air of probability to their own peculiar assertions”, So there is the key. It is their own peculiar assertions that they are leaning falling for. They are not interested in proving God’s Word, but they are trying to use God’s Word to declare their own peculiar notions or ideas. But we are commanded by God’s Word to “Lean not to your own understanding.” Because “the way a tree leaneth so shall it shall fall.”

The dictionary defines the word assertion as: Something declared or stated positively, often with no support or attempt at proof.

In other words, they don’t care what God’s Word really says, they are more interested in what they think it should say. But they know they must use the Word in order to give an air of vindication to their own thoughts.

But, they just use the Scriptures and don’t really care about the order or connection of the scriptures. Just as long as it seems to fit their own notion, that is what they aim for.

Like so many who will read one or two verses of scripture and then just talk, talk, talk.

I’ve seen them, they will open with one scripture and just talk, and cry, talk and cry, and the people think, “my this person is anointed.” When you say that you have no clue to what true anointing is. You’re looking at human emotion which is in itself very seductive.

That is why Hollywood is the master of seduction, and preachers are next in line. They all will paint a picture in your mind, and then by adding music, they play on your emotions, and when you as a human being get caught up into the emotional, you get caught in the trap they have set for you.

You watch a very touching scene in a movie, and you know they are just actors, but when they shed the tears so do you. Why? Human emotion, not anointing, emotion. You better know the difference or you will be fooled.

One brother that was living in adultery said to me one time, “oh, you’ve just got to come to this church I’m attending, you can really feel the Holy Spirit in there.”

I said, Brother if the Word is not their I doubt the Holy Spirit is there. Then I said, You ever go to a football game or a baseball game and the crowd gets all wound up and then they do the wave, and everyone gets caught up into the wave and pretty soon everyone is doing it.” That is not the Holy Spirit, that is the human dynamo. The human emotion, and you had better know the difference or you will be fooled into thinking that person is really anointed when he is just playing on your emotions.

Irenaeus said they are not interested in God’s opinion, they are only interested in their own opinion, and so they use God’s word to try and fit it to what they think instead of repenting which is to change their own thinking to fit to God’s opinion is.

So let’s read on what Irenaeus had to say...”while they endeavor to adapt with an air of probability to their own peculiar assertions the parables of the Lord, the sayings of the prophets, (and that is the same thing they are doing today) and the words of the apostles,

Now, I want you to notice what he is driving at here. He says they do it for a certain purpose, “in order that their scheme may not seem altogether without support. In doing so, and now we have the motive for what they are doing.

They know they must have some sort of credibility, and so they will use the Scriptures wherever it seems to them that it might possibly fit their scheme. And the word scheme is a secret or devious plan; as Paul warns us in Ephesians chapter 4.

Ephesians 4:14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

Now, you can't tell me that these men are just simply ignorant and don't really have bad intentions. The Bible speaks contrary to that kind of thinking.

The apostle Paul said “they lie in wait to deceive”. Now, to lie in wait gives us a mental image of a lion, or some form of predator that would lie along a path waiting for some unsuspecting person or animal to come along. They lie there and wait in order to spring upon them suddenly to overtake them.

As Peter said “the devil is like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour.”

And the Apostle Paul also said in, Hebrews 10:26 “For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

And that is like the guy I caught years ago deliberately misreading a quote from Brother Branham so that he could get some people to believe his notion that you had to have a vision of Jesus to receive the Holy Ghost.

He deliberately changed the words of brother Branham when Brother Branham said “you must have revelation”. The man instead of quoting verbatim the word “revelation,” instead inserted the word “vision”, as though brother Branham was saying you had to have a vision in order to receive the Holy Ghost.

This so called minister inserted the word “vision”, thus using the sentence of the prophet but changing the key word in order that his scheme may not seem altogether without support.

And where is that guy today? He's messed up worse than Hogan's goat and his wife turned to drugs and adultery. And that's what happens when you haven't any respect for God and you try to use God's Word in a way that He did not mean it to be used.

God said, “My thoughts are not your thoughts for my thoughts are higher than your thoughts.” And he also told us that no man can know the mind of the God unless the Spirit of God is in Him.

So you see when they are not born again they will just punch away using quotes from the message in a way they were not intended to be used or strung together until they find themselves out on a limb that there is no way they can come back from.

And notice what Irenaeus says next because he was speaking of what happened in the first church age after Paul had left the scene. And he was speaking of those things which carried over into the second church age that he was living in, after the people in the first age had left their first love.

And we see the same thing taking place even in this hour. And notice the way they use the Word of God and the Prophet's own words, but take them out of context and twist them so as to make their own doctrines seem like there is something to them. Like they are preaching a vindicated Word.

Irenaeus continued, “however, they disregard the order and the connection of the Scriptures, and so far as in them lies, dismember and destroy the truth. By transferring passages, and dressing them up anew, and making one thing out of another, they succeed in deluding many through their wicked art in adapting the oracles of the Lord to their opinions.”

Now, The Apostle Peter warned us about this in 2 Peter 2. ¶ But as there were false prophets among the people, so shall there be (That's future tense) false teachers among you, who privily (that means “not openly but in a subtle manner”, they) shall bring in damnable heresies, (so the question is bring into where? The Wuest Translation tells us that “these false teachers are of such a nature that they will bring in along side of the true doctrine destructive heresies”) even denying the Lord that bought them, (and that word deny means to “say no to” or “to disregard” or “to refuse”) and (in doing so they will) bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways;

And Pernicious means “to cause insidious harm or ruin”) by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

Notice that what these men do is that through their false teachings they “bring the way of Truth into disrepute”.

By claiming to be believers of the Message they bring the Message influence or reputation of the Message into ruin and disrepute.

In other words they become a stain on the true revelation of Jesus Christ and those who stand for the Truth and are identified with the Messenger of Truth, but because they have come in along side of the true doctrine and preach their own versions of heresy, they bring the rest of us who are doing all we can do to stand for the vindicated Message, and by association, the entire Message is looked down upon and the reputation of God's Servant William Branham is brought into question.

Now, notice verse 3 ¶ “And through covetousness” (so we see their motive is greed) “through their greedy desires to have more shall they with feigned words” (The expression “feigned words” means to give a false appearance or to represent falsely or words that are made up with the motive to deceive, or to imitate so as to deceive: so you can see their entire motive is deception, and that is for the purpose to) make merchandise of you:

So we see the real motive is money, money, money. Then these men are just peddlers of the Message. They are mere Hirelings. “whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.”

Irenaeus continues, “Their manner of acting is just as if one, when a beautiful image of a king has been constructed by some skillful artist out of precious jewels, should then take this likeness of the man all to pieces, should rearrange the gems, and so fit them together as to make them into the form of a dog or of a fox, and even that but poorly executed; and should then maintain and declare that this was the beautiful image of the king which the skillful artist constructed, pointing to the jewels which had been admirably fitted together by the first artist to form the image of the king, but have been with bad effect transferred by the latter one to the shape of a dog, and by thus exhibiting the jewels, (the individual quotes or scriptures taken out of context) should deceive the ignorant who had no conception what a king's form was like, and persuade them that that miserable likeness of the fox was, in fact, the beautiful image of the king.

Now, notice today we have The Masterpiece which is the King of Glory Himself presented to the people by the Words of a Vindicated Prophet, and he crafted His words so carefully and in such a way, as to present to us what He saw, when he said, “My ministry is to declare Him, that He is here.”

And “He is “the Supreme Deity” who has come down in our midst. And in doing so revealed and it unveiled “the Mighty God Unveiled” to us, but since that prophet is no longer on the scene to protect the image of this Masterpiece, others have come along, and have taken his quotes that presented to us the Mighty King of Glory, those jewels that Irenaeus spoke of, and they have disassembled the Message into sound bites, and quick quotes, and have reassembled them or rearranged them into the image of a dog or a fox and they have canvassed the world presenting their own opinions as the Image of “The King”.

And Irenaeus continued, “In like manner do these persons patch together old wives' fables, and then endeavor, by violently drawing away from their proper connection, words, expressions, and parables whenever found, to adapt the oracles of God to their baseless fictions. We have already stated how far they proceed in this way with respect to the Fullness.”

And that is what Brother Branham is telling us here when he says in PP 14 of The Masterpiece, “So I know no denomination or other to take you to. There's only one thing I have my faith in (if you believe me, follow what I tell you, because I believe the Bible), that's the Word of God. Other things fail. He is Life. He is the Word.”

So where can we go? Right to the Word every time, “for in Him is Life and the Life is the light of man.”

John 8:12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

So you see He is the light and in Him is no darkness at all.

In Him there is no confusion, in Him there is no uncertainty, 1 John 1: 1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; 2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

And finally in 1 John 5:11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

Notice in the Gospel of John we are told that the Life was in the Father and it was given unto His Son

John 5:26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

Now, let's go back to 1 John 5:11 *And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 He that echoes the Son echoes life; and he that echoes not the Son of God echoes not life. 13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

Now, if God is the Word and He is life, then to receive His word will bring His very Life into you.

In fact that is what the Scripture tells us. Acts 13:48 tells us "All who are ordained to Life, believe God's Word."

We see the same thing in 1John 2:20 "But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things."

And in John 3:15 "That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life."

But we see according to scripture that the Vine have no place for the Word.

John 8:37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

1 John 4:5-6 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. 6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; (this word knoweth is ginosko and means having a knowledge based upon and intimate relationship) he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

1John 2:19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

So we see that the True-Vine comes to the Light (The Revealed Word for the hour) and will not walk in darkness, whereas the False-Vine will not come to the light, and in fact will try to keep others from coming to it.

Isaiah 60:3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Psalms 56:13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

Psalms 89:15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance

John 3:21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

John 12:46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

1John 1:7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

Whereas The False Vine will not add to the Word of God, but will only use it to keep others from entering in.

Matthew 23:13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

Romans 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness

John 3:19-20 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

John 12:35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

John 12:48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

Isa 50:11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

1John 1:5-6 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

But the False Vine do not love the True Word, but hold to the word for another age, and because they loved not the Word they are turned over to a delusion.

2 Thessalonians 2:10-12 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

But that is because only God's Sons can understand the Word

John 8:31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; 32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

John 8:42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. 43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. 44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. 45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. 46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? 47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

1 Corinthians 2:11-12 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

Isaiah 50:4-10 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned. 5 The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. 6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. 7 For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. 8 He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me. 9 Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up. 10 Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

Matthew 13:11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

Matthew 13:16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

Mark 4:11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

Luke 8:10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

But those that are not ordained to Life cannot understand the Word of God.

John 8:38-47 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father. 39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. 40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. 41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. 42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. 43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. 44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. 45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. 46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? 47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

Matthew 13:11-15 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. 14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: 15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

Mark 4:11-12 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables: 12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them

Luke 8:10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand

1Corinthians 2:14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
