

#24 Takeover of the Mind

1 Shall we pray: Heavenly Father, You said in the last days that people would believe the lie, absolutely deceived unto condemnation: we know that that is true. The rest of Your Word is been proven true, and we know that this will be proven true also. And help us, therefore Lord, to be steered in paths of righteousness by Your Word that we might know what is correct and is the truth, not as Pilate who said, "What is truth?" And then walked away from the One who said, "I am the way, the truth and the life." But rather Lord, may we walk with You this day and we know two cannot walk together unless they be agreed and we know that really actually means how can one have fellowship with another unless they both fully believe that revealed Word of God which brings about that great compatibility. So help this church to walk together agreed with You, walking in the light, with the Blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son cleansing us. This morning we dedicate ourselves to that end and purpose in Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen. You may be seated.

2 Now we are actually looking at message number 24, based on Bro. Branham's sermon, Satan's Eden, and of course, you understand that he takes that from the thought that God had His Eden and Satan, the Scripture distinctly says in the Book of Ezekiel, Satan was in Eden, and he was there using the intelligent animal called the beast or the serpent, and through reasoning power he defrauded Adam and Eve and thereby literally took over what was God's Eden or God's kingdom upon earth. And what is he striving to do and accomplish and will do is what would be his eden. Even as God's Eden was perfect righteousness and peace through His Headship and communion with His dear children at that particular time.

3 Now, therefore, what will Satan's eden be? It will be the culmination of his government upon earth wherein he takes over the people of the earth so that they will have to worship him according to what he desires. They will think according to his thoughts. They will do according to what he says. Now this is what you are looking at. And Bro. Branham taught it to such an extent that we see we are at the very verge of the complete takeover of the church.

And that church will have to be headed up by some man. There's no doubt about it. The Bible calls him the antichrist and he will cause everybody great and small, no matter who he is, whatsoever to take the mark in the forehead or the hand and he will rule in a most terrible way.

4 Now, Bro. Branham mentioned as I said last night that this hour in which we live where Satan is coming into his own eden where he is going to have his own kingdom upon earth as he approached Jesus and said, "I'll give you this all if you fall down and worship me." This is coming into his hands at this hour and Bro. Branham said, "It's the most deceiving age of all times."

Now, it is also said in Thessalonians, "This deception brought by Satan is going to convince the people as he said to Eve, 'Thou shalt not surely die'." Now she did die. Adam died. And we've been dying ever since, except for a couple people like Noah and Elijah, and those who were raised at the time that Jesus was raised.

5 So how did the devil bring death? By deceiving Eve into believing that she was not what God already had said and demonstrated her to be, because he said, "You shall be as gods." Then he tacked on knowing good and evil. Now the tacking on was absolutely unnecessary but by it he fooled her. See, the idea was she could not really be the daughter of God, and Adam could not really be the son of God unless they knew this specific and particular thing or were in a particular and specific area. Who said? Anybody's got enough brains to know if you have a female dog and a male dog pedigreed, and they've been bred correctly, you got pups and they're pedigreed. No matter how they're striped, no matter their position, no matter their antics, they are genuine pedigreed dogs.

6 Now he came along here with a twist and she listened, and therefore, she denied her pedigree. Now that may sound strange to you who never heard me preach but the point is in this church we understand and know that God had a family, that His life was given to Adam and Eve, and they were given the privilege of bringing that life into the earth, and in their bloodline and streamline were the souls that God had ordained by that life that would take on a form. And anybody knows the life has its own form that it is adapted to, and they take it from nature. That's why Jesus, the Son of God came down and took upon himself a human form to identify himself with us and it says right in the Book of Hebrews, he stands in the midst of the church singing praise unto God and recognizes us as sons and daughters of God, the same as he is, that only begotten Son. And Satan right there took away her relationship. That's right.

7 Now he couldn't destroy it, but it caused a lot of problems. And that's what's basically wrong with Christianity today as Bro. Branham said, "When the Bride really knows who she is, she'll be gone." The people who are of God listen to Satan too much and deny their own pedigree, their own source. Satan told her he would make her what God already said she was. Look, come on, listen to it.

"Why," he said, "Eve, you know you're just so and so, but you listen to me and I'll make you thus and thus."

And she should have said, "Hey, what are you talking about? Who are you trying to fool? I'm already that." See, he put a condition to it which God had not put. See, you got to understand that.

8 He, therefore, then fashioned her from that point on and he became actually her designer. Today Satan is telling the Bride she is not what she is, which is the true pure virgin unadulterated sinless Bride of the Lord Jesus Christ and she listens to Satan's voice that tacks on conditions that said now, "If you were doing such and such. If you would be this way, that way, then it would be."

Isn't it strange when God was talking to His people He said, "The ass knows his master's crib and the eagle in the air knows his path but...my people don't know?" That's right. They don't know their pedigree. They don't know what it's all about. Today Satan is telling the Bride she is not what she is and is telling the church that she is what she is not.

9 Now, he deceived Eve by controlling her mind through questioning the Word. And thence receiving a perverted Word, seduced the Bride in the First Church Age according to Paul who said, "I believe Satan has taken you over. You are no longer a virgin Bride unto God because you've been seduced." And what was the seduction? The seduction was the mind. He said, "You've already got in your mind another Jesus, another Word, and another spirit."

If that was the case two thousand years ago, what shape is the church in today? If Satan could bamboozle her in her early hours of infancy, what is the church like today two thousand years later? Because that's the question! One rotten apple can destroy the whole barrel but no good apples can bring back a rotten apple. It's got to go back to seed and come forth and see what's in the seed. See?

10 Now, in Rev 13:16 let us notice the church at the end time that started in the Garden of Eden when Satan took over the mind of Eve through perverting the Word of God and it says distinctly in verse 16...

(16) And (the antichrist causes) all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their...(hands), (and) in their (forehead):

Now the forehead signifies the brain. You say, "Why?" Because the Word of God says to the Israelites, "You will make frontlets, and bind them on your forehead between your eyes." And the frontlet was a little tiny box called a phylactery wherein you put the Word of God and every time your head, jog, jog, jog, it went bump, bump, bump, signaling to the brain, the Word, the Word, the Word, the Word, the Word, the Word, the Word. So therefore, there is a word given to the antichrist church which she will receive. Now it says, "Bind the Word upon your wrists," a part of the hand, which signifies that Israel would do the Word. Then what will the antichrist church do? It will do the word and the will of Satan which Jesus denied, when Satan came and said, "Fall down and worship me and I will give you the world," and that's exactly what the antichrist is going to do at the end time. He's going to give the church, the world.

11 And it's as simple as a-b-c, because the number of the beast is six hundred and sixty-six and that's the number of every single pope that ever lived. And the Roman Catholic church has got the gold. Now let's get the understanding true. The Roman Catholic church, there is no place in the world where she isn't. The Jews, there is no place where they aren't. America, there is no place where her money isn't. America's money controls seventy percent of the commerce of the world, and we're going to go bust. We will go back to the gold standard. And who's got the gold? America had the chance when she had all the gold in New York, in Fort Knox, she owned it all after the Second World War, and like a fool she gave it all away. If we had kept the gold and raised the price to ten thousand dollars an ounce, there would be no poverty in America; there'd be no poverty in the world. We would control commerce a hundred percent; so therefore, America under the Marshall Plan returned the world to Rome. Now come on, we're not fools.

And everybody baptized in a Trinitarian dogma, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, is a Roman Catholic, and the Catholics admit that is their baptism. They originated it. So they claim every Protestant. Find one place in the Book of Acts where anybody every baptized any other way than in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and I'll eat the book. Come on. And I'm not that hungry; I'll eat dinner right away but I will eat the book. I got a sense of humor, a sense of fair play because I've called your bluff. You can't find it. It isn't there.

12 So therefore, in Rev 13:16 the antichrist forces his falsified word upon the people which comes from 2 Th 2:2-13 which tells you there is a spirit which will be revealed and then manifested that will bring about a perpetration of the lie which people will believe in contradistinction to the truth. Now who was Pilate when he said, "What is truth?" He was a Roman. And when the answer was given or to be given by the Presence of the truth he simply walked away.

So the issue once more at the end time will be a presentation of living truth as in contradistinction to the lie because the people who believe the truth will not fall under the bondage of the antichrist. Now listen! This is the Bible. So if you're looking to get out of here you better look for the truth. You say, "Well, Lee Vayle, I suppose you got it." Thank you, you're exactly right. Your supposition is true. You say, "Where did you get it from?" a vindicated prophet. What have you got to talk about? Where did you get yours? Out of some book that lies to you, that you don't know is truth, because your mother taught it. I care two bits for my mother's religion. She was so messed up as a Protestant of the Reformed Church coming from John Knox down, that she would recite the Apostle's Creed. And we went to her and said, "Ma, look, Mary is not ascended," and brought out some of the things the Apostle's Creed, she was so shaken that she literally turned from a Protestant to a Catholic. "Well," you say, "your mother was stupid." Well, you're not so smart either. None of us are.

13 If the church was starting its ignorant journey and its blindness two thousand years ago, where is it today? If a person started to get blind twenty years ago, what chance has he of his blindness being arrested, unless something is done? Not very much chance; he'll end up in a more deteriorated condition, perhaps perfect blindness.

2 Thessalonians tells us distinctly that there is only one hope and that is the truth of the Word of Almighty God, and this lines exactly with 2 Timothy 3, and it tells you that at the end time the lie will make its appearance the same as it is also said in Matthew 24, it will make its appearance amidst the time when the Son of man is revealed and a ministry comes upon earth of healing and much vindication or manifestation of the things of God.

14 Now, so what we are into, and we're into last night and today hopefully is the understanding of how Eve lusted after knowledge both mental and carnal. Mental and carnal: isn't it strange the liberation of sexuality by the high priestess Mary Colderone, the prostitute who as Ann Landers said and Abby and the rest of them, "You cannot teach sex in school and not have the kids go home and practice what they have learned."

Isn't it strange that at the time of computers when we have reached the point through computerization and the studies of brilliant men that knowledge is increasing or doubling literally twice per year? Mental: Eve was fooled, and she got into carnal knowledge whereby she brought forth Cain and there never was a time of such carnal knowledge as there is today. And at the expense of being terribly, terribly crude, let me tell you what the young men in Zaire said, "High school kids who were literally ninety percent promiscuous, and not only so but were hyperactive sexually, and they said, 'Well, man didn't you tell us it's either you use it or you lose it. We don't want to lose it, do we? And it's good for the back, so who wants to have a bad back?'"

15 America's no different. And AIDS has swept the country, and it will not be cured because it's a plague from God. And Carpose's cancer I've already told you. Right from the experts have indicated that those who receive AIDS by an infected needle or a bloodstream do not get Carpose's cancer; it is a sexual disease transmitted.

What am I trying to tell you? Mental and carnal knowledge started in the Garden of Eden and it's being reaped today amongst the multitudes unless something is done—you get the records yourself. I've got them at home and I've read them to you. It's multiplying at the rate, doubling per year. If you could double your interest or your money every year and you started with five hundred dollars, how long would it take to have five thousand? We've only got two hundred and forty million people in America at the rate of going nineteen hundred and ninety-five could not possibly come upon us unless something is done where almost the entire American public is infected. The heterosexuals are now outclassing the homosexuals. The kids in college now rival those in prison. Satan's eden. You say how? That's what he started. That's how his kingdom started. It's going to end with the full fruit thereof.

16 The church will end in a divorce from God. In Matthew 25 it distinctly said, "I know you not," which alliteration is, "I used to know you as my wife but I don't know you as my wife any longer." The same divorce is insinuated. If you wish to use that particular type of interpretation or translation from the Greek it's in 2 Thessalonians 2, where it speaks of the divorce, the cutting off.

So what we're looking at when Bro. Branham tells us of Satan's Eden, how it started, we're looking at how it ends by reason of what the beginning was, we're looking at the takeover of the mind of the church by Satan. And at some time there is a takeover of the mind by the Bride, by God through a vindicated Word, the Rhema and the Logos becoming one.

17 Now we traced that last night. That's where I think I maybe lost some of you, to let you know what God was doing with the truth as Satan was doing against the truth. Now as I said last night, Adam had the mind of God. And through Adam so also did Eve. She did not receive the Word directly from God, but she received it from her husband. What is the difference? There's a big fuss always about the women. Are they co-equal? Is it this? Is it that? If God chose to use a man, then that's all right.

Look, you wouldn't care two bits if a man or a woman gave you a million dollars. "Oh," you'd say,

"hallelujah, praise God, that's goody, goody." You wouldn't say, "Well, the woman gave it so I won't..." you know. You wouldn't say, "The man gave it..." What does it matter how God gives His Word? He gave it through the man that's the established precept, that's why women cannot teach. It distinctly said, "Eve was deceived. Adam was in the transgression; he was not deceived, he went in with both eyes open, with both feet." If that's what God's Word said, that's what it is. And that tells you then that the church cannot stand on her own word; she's got to stand on revelation from God.

18 I'm going to read something to you. I don't care if we ever get finished. I'll just call it quits and start Wednesday. I'm never bugged. I might bug you and I don't mean to, you know that. Now listen! Wrong side of the paper. [Bro. Vayle's comments are in brackets in paragraphs 17 - 37.]

"The written and the oral Torah, is it not strange that the exact date of the revelation of the Torah at Mount Sinai, certainly one of the most momentous and miraculous episodes in the entire Bible, is not revealed anywhere in the holy text itself? (It isn't.) Are the holidays, Pesach and Sukkot, and Rosh Hasdanah, Yom Kippur more important than the revelation at Sinai? Why should we be told the exact date when Noah got into the ark, the seventeenth day of the second month and the exact date he emerged, a hundred and fifty days later on the seventeenth day of the fifth month, when we are not given such precise information about the revelation which is much closer to our own historical memories? (That's the Law of Moses on Sinai.)

19 As a nation committed to both God and His law, what could possibly more...be more significant than the day on which God revealed Himself to us and gave us the Torah? (That's the first five books of the Bible, and of course, you can include it down the road with the rest of the prophets.) In fact the Talmud in tractate Shabbat, 86b even records the difference of opinion as to when the revelation took place. The sages claim it was on the 6th of Sivan and the Rabbi Yosi argues it was on the 7th, but there is no...but there is a further problem. Ask any child what the Festival of Shavuot signifies and he will say the revelation on Mount Sinai. Certainly this is true, except that when we studied the Biblical references concerning the Feast of Weeks, and they appear in these books of the Pentateuch except for Genesis because that's history. No hint of revelation is mentioned, indeed it would be more accurate to describe the fiftieth day after Pesach, as a festival commemorating the efforts of the...offering rather, of the first harvest and the culmination of the Exodus from Egypt because of the account each day between the festivals of Pesach and Shavuot, but these are only the meanings ascribed to the Festival of Weeks. (We'll just keep listening now.)

20 One possible explanation might be that by not revealing the exact date, the Torah reminds us that more important than receiving the gift is what done...what one does with it. (In other words, like a birthday present....) It is expensively bound... Is the expensively bound leather volume marked Bible relegated to the book shelf, the coffee table, or the study desk? (So he's saying now, look it, if it's a matter of what date? It matters what is there.) And after all, if on Shavuot, we were given the Torah by God, we had not yet begun to study it, to really accept it and internalize it, in fact the very opposite was the case. Only forty days after the revelation-

(Now watch! When they're going back to history, he said, should we not have taken this Torah, the revelation from God, should we not have internalized it, and then thereby immortalized it, thereby eternalized it, thereby immortalized it? No, but listen what happened.)

21 Only forty days after the revelation we spurn the divine gift. When Moses reads...when Moses' return is delayed hysteria reigns as the Jews turn from God and start worshipping a golden calf. (See?) Since this is sin which the Jewish people still have to repair, is it surprising that the date of revelation is hidden?

(Now you see what you're doing here. You're going into human reasoning. They are viewing the Word of God from a human standpoint of what they figure to be correct as applying to them. Now let's...this gets hotter as we go along.)

22 Subsequent events transform it from celebration to embarrassment, moreover the exact date isn't given because in the consciousness of the Torah Judaism is not a fixed set of laws whose interpretation lies beyond the involvement of the Jewish people.

(Now he's telling you right there, don't you ever think for one minute God ever gave a law or a word that people couldn't fiddle with. That's just what they're saying. God never gave a Word that He didn't place in our hands, that we had a lot to do with It, just we could manipulate it. I'll show you.)

23 We possess not only a written Torah, but an oral Torah as well. The basis for which was revealed to Moses in Mount Sinai, and each generation's task is to interpret the Torah in accordance with the conditions and exigencies of its respective generations.

(Is that true? That's a lie. What he's saying is God gave this to Moses orally, so therefore, we will have men who are also going to give it to us orally, and according to the expediency as we see it in this hour, we will apply it. Now there's a whole lot of truth there but it's loaded with lies.)

24 Each generation's task is to interpret the Torah in accordance with the conditions and the exigencies of its respective generations. (Now listen!) Anything from organ transplants to the law of modern warfare partners with God with equal responsibility.

(Now if you can't hear the pope talking, and the General Assembly of the Pentecostal churches and the patriarch of the Greek church, and the matriarch of all the rest, I'm missing my guess.)

25 In effect therefore the Torah was not given at one moment in history. It is still continuing (That's true but it's a lie.) in terms of its application and interpretation for each generation.

(Jesus Himself said, "The fulfilled Word is gone." Bro. Branham said, "The Word passes away; It becomes full of wiggletails." The Bible says that. I want to ask you a question. What part passes away? That which has been fulfilled, but notice, that God does the fulfilling, not man.)

26 In tractate Baba Mezia, 59b, we come across a legal argument as to whether an akhnai oven, an oven where sand separates each layer of tiles is capable of ever becoming impure? (Now that's a great thought.) Rabbi Eliezer brings forth every imaginable argument to convince the sages, but they still rule against him. So he says, "Let the carob tree prove that I am right." Rabbi Eliezer announces and the tree is uprooted. One hundred, some say four hundred cubits. (Now this is a legend, you know this is a bunch of hogwash.)

27 We do not derive our laws from carob trees the sages answer in majority versus the minority, the majority rules. Undaunted Rabbi Eliezer turns to nature for aid. A spring flows backward, the walls of a school about to fall down but the Rabbi Joshua stops them. Still the sages refuse to bow to Rabbi Eliezer. Exasperated he cries out that if he is right let it be proven in heaven-(Now listen!)-and a heavenly voice responds. (Can you believe it?)

28 Why do you dispute with Rabbi Eliezer seeing that in all matters the heavens agree with him? Finally Rabbi Joshua quotes a verse from Deuteronomy, it is not in heaven, meaning Jeremiah explains that since the Torah was already given on Mount Sinai we don't turn to heavenly voices to find the laws. We must interpret here on earth, working with our own intellectual understanding.

(The very thing that Bro. Branham says brings about Satan's eden. You wonder then why Israel crucified Christ? You wonder why when the church today has the same understanding that Israel had and at the time of Jesus, the Sanhedrin publicly declared that when God has a problem He calls on us. Now that's the truth. Who does the Catholic church call on? Who do the Protestants call on? Let's keep reading.)

29 The lesson is clear despite Rabbi Eliezer supernatural feats he cannot change the sages majority ruling. (Jesus pulled the covers off the book, proved exactly who he was by vindication and they crucified him on these very grounds.)

30 The debate continues with an amazing postscript. Apparently Elijah the prophet used to meet Rabbi Nathan and during one visit the prophet was asked about the Holy One...what the Holy One did when he was bested by the sages who ignored the heavenly voice. And Elijah answered that God laughed with joy and said, `Bani metsona, bani metsona, bani metsona': my children have conquered me, my children have conquered me.

(This is still what the Jews believe and the Christians are no different. Do you think they are? Come on. Grow up and wake up. Go talk to your ministers. Talk to your organization and they'll produce the little black book and tell you this is it, and they haven't even got the guts to lie like the Jews, outside the Roman Catholic pope who claims he hears from God and meets with God.

Pope Pious, I think was the last one, and the theologians said, "Dear brother pope, please do not declare that Mary is ascended or everybody will laugh."

But being the pope, the vicar of Christ, self-appointed, he stood there as in a trance and then with all solemnity, call it dignity, call it what you want. I call it with all farcical, hypocritical attitude and atmosphere, "Mary is ascended. Mary is ascended. Mary is ascended." That doesn't make it so. "I have a Rolls Royce. I have a Rolls Royce. I have a Rolls Royce." Like fun I have a Rolls Royce. I don't even have the money to put a down payment on one and neither does the pope.)

31 The popular perception would have it that our Torah is fixed in stone. (You bet it is.) The product of a much earlier world and more primitive age the opposite is true, with tradition, and what better reflects the tradition than the page of the Talmud. (You ought to read some of it, like I've read it.) There is a built in system for exploration in confronting the demands of each age.

(Now though that is actually true, the demands of each age must be confronted how God said they were to be confronted, not by what we say or we'll end up crucifying Christ again which the Christians have done already at the end time.)

32 The tradition is flexible precisely because it's of oral components. What people often perceive of being the strict monolithic part of Judaism, rabbinical law is really is it's most flexible part, resilient, allowing for interpretations in consonants with the unique features and exigencies of each generation. To be sure legitimate interpretations can only eminent from a religio-legal body devoted to the religio-legal process and accepted by committed Jewish communities.

(So therefore, if the Catholics say our pope is right, it's right, because the bishops and the cardinals and the priests said it was right. So therefore, if the moderator or the president of the Assemblies of God says it's right, because his ministers and the elders and all say it is right, people said Amen, it's right, it's right. Is it? Now listen! Do you understand where antichrist comes from? Do you understand how it would take the church over? It's already taken over. The spirit has been manifesting itself for centuries. That's exactly why even the Jews will join in the antichrist process but there's one thing where the Jews have it over the Christians; the Jews will never worship a man. And when it comes down to finality that's when they're going to balk. And that's the only time that God will come. Read your Bible, you'll find it to be so.)

33 But the Bible itself insists that Torah questions be allowed by the judge of each generation and the response of literature to this very moment testifies to the ability of Jewish law to deal with each modern issue from Israel's independence day to artificial insemination.

(They've got all the answers. You know something? It would be great to see fire come down on Mount Sinai. It would be great to hear a voice thunder out of the heavens that you could hear. It would be great to have a Mount Carmel showdown because I'm going to tell you with the Jews so mixed up and the Protestants identical because...and the Christians rather, so mixed up because listen, Messiah is the same word in Hebrew as Christos in the Greek. Messiah and Christos is the same word. "We're all one." And they're all fooled.)

34 In fact rather than interpreting the words `bani metsona', `as my children have conquered me', one can interpret them as `my children have eternalized me'.

(You know that's exactly like the Amish people. Where was God before the funny black hats? I'm not here to be ridiculed, but this is ridiculous. God's in a uniform? A collar turned backward? Now God's in the Mormon church? Joe Smith heard a voice, read all these so-called records. Where was God before the Mormons came on the scene?)

You got to get if there's anything to the Bible somehow somebody somehow has got to get back to the beginnings. As the Bible distinctly said before Jesus Christ can come there's got to be a restoration of all things spoken by the holy prophets. In other words, like people who interpret the Torah are wrong, you've got to go back to the tables of stone. You can't take an oral translation. Jesus Himself condemned them by saying, "You annul the Word of God. You make void worship by your traditions." And it's carried on right today. Listen! They crucified Jesus then, and the only time they're going to respect Him is when He comes back and stands in their midst and then He's going to put forth His hands, and they're going to get awful scared.

And they'll say, "Just a minute, I hope that isn't what I think it is."

He'll say, "Oh yes, it is."

"Then you're going to kill us."

"No, no, I'm not going to kill you."

You don't think that's the truth? You read your Bibles; you're going to find out. You say, "Well, I don't believe the Bible." Well, that's all right, I'm here preaching it.)

35 God in His Torah remain continually relevant, eternal, as a result of each generation's interpretation. (It's getting worse, not better.) Indeed the Jewish people and our sages are partners with God in the ageless revelation of the Torah as it reaches us in every generation. (They did that two thousand years ago, they're doing it today.)

36 And that's why the date of the revelation is not given. The way in which the revelation of the Torah on Mount Sinai functions in the world is always subject to the specifics of the time and place as understood and interpreted by the garnered wisdom of the ruling sages. (Now the first half is exactly true; the last half is blasphemy because the Word of God is relevant but not made so by man.)

37 The blessings we recite over the Torah begins with the past tense. `Ashar baha banu' who has chosen and given, and concludes by praising the God who gives the Torah continually in the present tense through the interpretation and insights of the Torah leaders of each generation.

(See, that's where they blew it. They know that God used prophets and never changed. "Behold, I send you prophets and wise men and scribes, and you turn them all down, you chased them away, you crucified them, you persecute them." He said, "I would have gathered you to myself and you turned down my way.")

If God out there really created nature, and nature is infallibly correct. You say, "Well we can cross-breed." Stop your cross-breeding and see what it goes back to. I planted sunflowers. I didn't plant them, I threw them out for the birds, and you know what, the first year they grew nice big sunflowers, next year they had gone to seed, they had gone back to original, little tiny. I like the tiny ones better. That's right.)

38 In effect everything about the Festival of Shavuot indicates the Torah is a open book; (Well, it is.) a revelation whose power lies in its inclusion of the visible and invisible, (I won't argue that to a point.) the divine, and the Jewish people (won't argue that to a point), the written and oral (won't argue that), the specific and general, the obvious and the subtle.

(I'll endorse all that but I'm going to endorse it God's way. God decreed and this man doesn't even look at the Mount Sinai. He doesn't look at Deuteronomy 13 and Deuteronomy 18 wherein God decreed that God would no longer speak to people collectively; it would be by a vindicated prophet. No wonder Israel is so far off the track and no wonder we are exactly like her. So there what we are looking at. You see. All right.)

39 Now, in this day, in this hour, I mentioned last night the Seventh Church Age, that the Word of God by the scribe John said of this age, "Jesus is standing at the door knocking and if any man hear his voice and open the door, he'll come in and sup with him." As Larkin so well put it and corroborated by a vindicated ministry of William Branham and we believe to be a prophet, he said, "That as Christ has been put outside the church and He's anxious to get back in but no one is listening to Him."

40 Now, looking at God as Alpha and Omega which we do so taking our understanding from the Garden wherein God was there and gave His Word, wherein Satan was there and perverted that Word, wherein at this time then Eve typing the church goes then to exactly what this article about the Torah tells us that man now takes a community sense of God as though he is a partner with God and can say and do what he wants and God will back it up. In other words, he will have his own moral precepts and laws and absolutely it will not work.

41 Now how are we going to get back to the Word today? There is only one way we're going to get back to the Word and that is exactly how God has told us we are going to get back to It. Now without belaboring the point we can go here to the Book of Acts, the 3rd chapter, and it speaks in verse 19.

(19) Repent (you) therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out.
(This is a message of Peter to the Jews and there should be a period there. Now then, it says,) when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

(20) ...(even that God) shall send Jesus Christ, which...was (appointed) unto you:

He's saying right there, there's coming a time of refreshing, a revival from the Presence of Almighty God that will indicate that very definitely that God is going to cause Jesus Christ to return to this earth. But it says there's a little catch in there. And Peter says, "This Jesus that was taken away and is duty bound to return again in the same form in which he was taken to set up his kingdom on earth with his beloved fellow members of the kingdom, the heavens must receive him, he cannot come, even with this great revival he cannot come until there's a restoration of the Word."

42 Now you will notice that the Roman Catholic church and the Protestants are all one. And especially from the Catholic headship in the papers you will notice that the pope is given credit for what has gone on in Russia. That he is the great author of peace and Gorbachev has bowed to him and now he the great leader is about to bring the kingdom of God upon earth. Now that's what they have claimed for almost two thousand years and they're claiming it even stronger than ever. And the Protestants are only too happy to join with them until Billy Graham himself admits it was a great experience to be with the pope who when he greeted him held up his thumb. They grasped thumbs, you know, like Boy Scouts, what these little kids, you know, had a great time. And he gave a very great eulogy concerning what he sees in this hour. So much for Billy Graham because Billy Graham has missed the point! It is not how it comes because the Bible says, the heavens is spite of this great revival which the world has witnessed, there must come out of it what?

(21) ...the (restoration) of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

43 In other words, there must be a complete and true revelation of the Word of God or there cannot be an actual coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. Now hey, you bring that to the churches. You tell them this. Do you think they're going to believe it? They are going to interpret it in the light of their own understanding which is a scientific understanding which has been garnered from the scrolls and the scripts and all theology through the ages and what they see in nature and see if it could be compatible. Now how many people can you even get to sit down and be compatible? You haven't got a prayer. There's only one way to be compatible. That's to have a guy big enough, strong enough, [and] tough enough to crack heads and pull them in line, just like Elijah on Mount Carmel. Do you think I'm lying to you? Go ahead, you tell me another method. Go ahead, tell me. Now like a... [Acts 3:]

(21) Whom the heavens) must receive until the (restoration) of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all (the) holy prophets since the world began.

(22) For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; your God him (you will) hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

(23) ...it (will) come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

44 Peter is talking about a future event concerning this One he's talking about coming back. Now he said, "There's got to be a restoration before this One comes back: this One that you slew and crucified and slew." Now he tells you that this One that comes back is going to have absolute perfect judgment so that those who do not receive Him will be utterly destroyed. That did not happen when Christ was here upon earth in the flesh, no way, shape and form. Only in Revelation 19 when He comes back upon a white horse with the Bride does He utterly destroy and there's left neither root nor branch.

Now, just a minute; it says there's got to be a restoration before then. Huh? Now Matthew 16 tells us...17, very authentically that Elijah must first come and restore. Elijah was the one that knocked heads on Mount Carmel. Elijah was the one who proved that he was God's prophet and what God's Word said and what was relevant for that hour, and in that hour they destroyed the prophets of Baal which was a religious system in contradistinction and in opposition to God.

45 I want to ask you a question. What does the word `Satan´ mean? It means `adversary´. Then whose religion was the religion of Baal? Satan´s. Then whose religion will be at the end time in the complete morass that I read to you? And the Jews are no different from the Christians because Christ is the same as Messhiah. [Bro. Vayle pronounces this as Messhiah.] Christos and Messhiah; the Jews are Christians or we are Messiahettes. You can argue all you want; you can´t change it.

A cat describes a cat. Would you now prefer to use a term to describe a cat that belongs to a dog? And try to make the cat and dog the same? You can´t do it. Neither can you take and make one object different by using terminology for a rose is just as sweet by any other name or as Gertrude Stein says, "A rose is a rose is a rose," and a Messhiah is a Christos and a Christos is a Messhiah. Our churches are in the same error of attempting to use the Word of God according to their own understanding. This is where the pity comes in.

46 Now it also says in the Book of Malachi, which is the last little book, the 4th chapter,

(1) For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day the cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, ...it (will) leave them neither root nor branch.

(2) But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and (you will) go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall. (In other words, there is another growth and a period of sanctification in the Bride when she´s taken off of this earth. Right?)

(3) And (you) shall tread down the wicked; (that´s a further growth and status when they come back in Revelation 19, not with white horses,) for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

(5) Behold, I...send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

(6) And he shall turn the (hearts) of the (children back) to the (fathers), lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

Now He´s going to come and smite the earth with a curse but He won´t destroy the righteous with the wicked. Why? Because He´s going to send Elijah. Now, the churches rise up and say, "Well, we believe in Jesus. Who needs Elijah?" Because the Bible said so, he is the one who will restore the Word.

47 Now let´s go on back to 2 Thessalonians 1, which I showed you last night which is utterly perfect....

(7) (But)...you who are troubled rest with us, (relax) when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty (messengers),

(8) In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

(9) Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

(10) When he shall come to be glorified in his saints,...

Now let me read it the way it should be written here. Up here's an interpolation.

(7) And you (that) are troubled rest with us, when (our) Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

(10) When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, (Yeah, because Paul switches the subject; the subject is from Bride to world. He interpolates the world and he said, "Listen, He's coming with a two-edged sword. The two-edged sword will cut you free and bind them unto destruction." Now,) and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

Paul here is telling the people at the time of the showdown, as of Mount Carmel, when God divides His people through a ministry it's going to be the Word as Paul preached it and he goes on in 2 Thessalonians telling them. He said, "They will believe the lie." And the lie started way back there in the Corinthian church when Paul, he said, "I've got doubts about you because I've espoused you to Christ as a virgin, but...I feel that you've been seduced by Satan because your mind has been brought under his control because you've got another Jesus, another gospel, and another spirit." That has got to be restored, so therefore, at this time something is going to happen and it's going to take Elijah to do it.

48 Now since Paul is the apostle to the Gentiles and not the Jews, this is going to have to be a Gentile prophet. "Ah, horrors! Who ever heard of it?" There it is. There it is. You can't have a Jew come to us. The Jews are blinded. It's got to be a Gentile.

This is where we stand with vindication. That is a supernatural picture authenticated by George J. Lacy, head of the FBI documentation and photography; taken by a man named Kipperman went into the paper with a man named Dr. West in Houston, Texas who came against Bro. Branham and Dr. Bosworth to defy the Lord God and the healing principle and every picture in the camera was a blank but that one.

And George J. Lacy said, "Someday this will sell in the dime store for ten and fifty cents as the only authentic picture of a supernatural being."

You say, "Well, I'll pass on that." I don't because I knew the man and never once did he fail the test of Deuteronomy chapter 18, coming in the Name of the Lord with THUS SAITH THE LORD; It never failed. I believe with all my heart the man was Elijah to bring the Word back to us. That's why we preach Word by Word the very sermons that he brought to our attention. Now, absolutely, we believe this to be the undeniable vindicated Word of the Almighty God. All right.

49 Over here in the Book of Revelation, chapter 10, the Bible distinctly said,

(1) ...I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven clothed with a cloud: a rainbow was upon his head, and his face as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

(2) ...he had in his hand a little book open: he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot (upon) the earth,

(3) And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion (roars): and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

(4) And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying, Seal up (the) things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

(5) And the angel I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

(6) And swore by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, (and so on and) ...time (should be) no longer:

(7) But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, (according) as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

Now I want to ask you a question. When the showdown came for reality on Mount Sinai, I beg your pardon, on Mount Carmel, it was the same Pillar of Fire that came down upon Sinai because upon Sinai the Word was given, "I will come to a prophet and the prophet will speak to the people."

50 There was therefore this showdown and the question then is this. What did God do? According to the Scripture God intervened Himself or He interposed Himself. Do you understand what I am saying? If God interposed Himself for Elijah, I'm going to ask you a question. Who interposed himself for John the Baptist? God did. If God must interpose himself for Elijah which He must, and Elijah comes in this hour to the Gentile people to forewarn them, and restore the Word of God, who then will interpose Himself? Only God! Could then this not be the accurate truth taken by a camera? Who interposed Himself? Now that's what the Bible says.

You say, "Well, Bro. Vayle, you just may be twisting it." No, I'm not twisting things. I'm not twisting the fact that God interposed Himself. When God swore to Abraham He not only gave His Word but He Himself stood there and delivered His Word. When God gave His Word to Moses, He deliberately came down, interposed Himself and gave His Word. When Paul wrote the epistles, he tells us in the Book of Galatians which is also in the Book of Acts, he said that that Pillar of Fire that talked to Him was the Lord Jesus that took Him to the desert and the Lord Jesus Himself interposed Himself and gave the revelation.

Now, if the revelation is lost, and Elijah must truly come and restore, who is going to interpose Himself to make sure we have the revelation and on what grounds? Now that's what we see this morning in the Word of God brought to our attention where God Himself is bringing us the truth that we don't have to believe a lie.

51 Listen to what it says over here in [2] Thessalonians. We don't have to have our minds corroded by the things of this world. It tells us right here in the 2nd chapter,

(1) Now we beseech you, brethren, by the (Presence) of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, (He tells you right there that Jesus Christ must be present and be gathered unto him. Now what does he say next?)

(2) That (you) soon (not be) shaken in mind, or troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as that day of Christ is (now present)....

He tells you right there hey, there isn't going to be a spirit, there isn't going to be a word, there isn't going to be somebody coming and writing another book concerning that day, and he said, it's not now; it's down the road.

So down the road what can you expect? You've got to expect what Paul said. That same Word come into force. Now if everybody's doubting and everybody's expressing their differences and understanding concerning the Pauline epistles how are we ever going to know anything unless God who gave the book is going to come here and interpret It?

You say, "That's a pretty farfetched thing." Well, listen, if God can't do that, let's just say one thing, forget it. Just forget it. We're wasting our time. We got a God who's a liar. We've got a God whose Word doesn't mean anything. He says right here, Paul; "The separation from the wicked and the righteous depends upon a Word. That Word already given, that Word already misunderstood." Now after two thousand years if this is the time, God's got to do something.

52 And you know what happens? The people jump in, just like these guys I read about here in Israel. They jump in and they'll tell you, "You never mind this stuff about a prophet. I want to tell you God is relevant. The Bible is relevant. It's not what you think. We're going to tell you."

Well, please don't try to tell me because I'm utterly stupid. I know water, bread, butter, beans even without pork. I'm stupid. I don't need reasonings. I don't need philosophy. I'm a bread and butter man entirely. I'm not given to fancy and theory. I couldn't daydream if you paid me to; I've tried it. I like to maybe fantasizing, "Wouldn't it be nice if I was born a millionaire?" Forget it. I'm on my way out and I ain't a millionaire. All I can think of is what Jesus said. There's a land there. That's...if I'm not it there's a part...somebody's going to be a part of it. I don't fantasize. I was with that man too many years not to know the truth. Not with some Mormon, Joe Smith, who had a bunch of tripe that was hid in public somewhere, if indeed he got it off gold plates which I doubt very much. Or Mary Baker Eddy.

53 Oh, let me read you something else. Let's get in this thing today. I'm going to let you go. I get too wound up; you'll never get out of here. My good buddy, Don Moore sent this. Here's the man who wrote this. [Bro. Vayle's comments in brackets for paragraph 52.]

"Today I was at the office of the Reverend Lovell R. Cary, the World mission director of the Church of God in Cleveland. (That's Pentecostal.) He related me a seventy year old prophecy that came forth in Russia that I've never heard before. He said, "There's a Russian pastor, Brother Roman who shared with me a prophecy given by a Pentecostal woman at the height of the spread of Communism, and about 1930." The woman said that in the future a leader would come to Russia and his first name would be Mikhail. He'd be recognized by a mark on his head. When this man comes to power, religious freedom will once again be open in Russia. When this occurs it will be only for a brief time. The Christian must take advantage of this opening because this season is over...when this season is over, the worst persecution will come. I was speaking to a Dallas businessman who had been to Russia many times lately, he told me about two days ago, that the Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev whose mother is a true Christian. (I don't know that that's anywhere near true. He says, "His grandmother took him to be baptized.")

She bakes him a birthday cake every year with Scriptures from the Bible on it. But while Mikhail denounced Christianity when in college, some believe that he is a secret believer. According to this man, the Russian government has noticed for many years that Christians are the best workers in the factories, and are obedient to all government regulations as far as public policy is concerned. In fact those that are hard line Communists are unhappy with their lives and often alcoholics. (We know that's true.) They do not according to some Soviet leaders work as hard as Christians; this one thing that led to a more open...this one thing that has led to a more open policy toward Christians. (Now here's what it says in the bottom.)

The last Czar will be named Mikhail. (They spell this different now. M-i-k-k-h-a-l, up here they got it spelled out as M-i-k-k-e-l. I don't know what they think they're doing. Even their writing is messed up.) His name would be Mikhail with a mark. He left the Jews out. He will not sit on his throne until the end and he'll draw the land into catastrophe. This prophecy has been passed down from generations to generation, emanating from Czarist Russia and found itself in Helsinki, Finland newspaper. A friend of mine who ministers in the Soviet Block countries spoke with a Russia immigrant who heard this prediction passed down to his father and himself when he was little." (Now what...?)

54 Now listen. I don't doubt the woman said it, but what does it mean? It means hey folk, you're just exactly right. You're great. Now you got this big chance to move forward. Do it now. What has that got to do with Elijah must first come? This is the same thing that happened to those Armenians out there in California of which the Shekerian's are a part and the different ones.

This young boy many years ago before, I guess the First World War when the Turks murdered so many Armenian Christians, and this little boy, ignorant, with no education, perhaps not could read or write, drew a map and in the map showed the United States and said, "You people go there, and you will escape the murder," and the people that left went over here to America and they reside, and they became Pentecostals, some of them, and very rich people and so on.

But there is a certain letter that was also written that nobody is willing to open. Now what do you think that's going to do? They met Bro. Branham and they turned him down. Letter, spirit, Word. The woman had the word. Armenians got the prophecy. Turned it down. What does this mean that I read? It means the devil has prepared another trap for the people.

55 I want to ask you a question. If it takes the Word of Paul, as Paul delivered It, to put me in the rapture, to save me from deceit, I want that Word today. I want to ask you a question. Will you give it to me? Will you stand and let me put my life on the line in your hands when you stand before God and take my judgment if you're wrong? You're pretty silent and you ought to be. Are you willing just to listen to some preacher, group of men? Sounds ridiculous. If this isn't true, if God doesn't do as He's always did which was bring a vindicated prophet and Paul was vindicated. He says it several times and especially in the Book of Romans, the 15th chapter, and in 1 Corinthians. He said, "I did not come to you with just words. I never came to you with philosophy. I came in the power of God vindicated and you know the Word stands in power." And this man had it. Listen, I've known the Luminaries. I'm seventy-six years old this fall. I know the Luminaries. I have met them. I have read the books. Not one had THUS SAITH THE LORD and stood there as a prophet.

56 You say, Bro. Vayle what if somebody else comes?" You have him. You have him. Do you know why? I'm not facetious and argumentative but anything after the original is a copy. God does not set you up with his Word and then knock you down. God never set Adam and Eve up with this Word and knocked them down. It was Satan came with the perversion, with a lie, taking over their minds, and so will antichrist take over the minds and the will and his number is six hundred and sixty-six.

And the revived Holy Roman Empire is everywhere. And the Jews are everywhere. And the American dollar is everywhere. And when our money fades and the Jews have the paper, and if they don't have the paper you tell me how the Jews have managed leverage buyouts everywhere. When Hitler walked into France, tell me, please tell me, how come Rothschild didn't lose his head and his money? Tell me after the Second World War how Jewish money went to Canada and United States and began buying up everything? Tell me. You can't. You sit there dumb. And I stand up here dumb. Is it true that Harry Hopkins took our plates over to Russia? Turned up billions of dollars in American money we're paying the price for now? American paper.

57 The Catholics have the gold. Ask Barney Cabber, who led him around the Basilica in Mexico City, when that guide said these are twenty-two gates just behind the altar, fifteen tons of gold apiece, never mind what's in front. You think they won't run the world? Do you think the world's going to stand by especially the church stand by and not change the money system when people are crying for food?

When you send your money for care packages, who is it that relegates it and delegates it? The Catholic church. Who has got the ear of the government as being absolutely honest? The Catholic church. Which monks, the Palatine monks, embezzled Americans of four million dollars in Philadelphia, and what pope said, "Leave them alone, money is money?" The present pope.

58 Come on, Satan's eden is soon to appear. The son of perdition ministry has already been here and is here. The man of sin is about to appear. He'll head up the whole world whether they like it or not because the Bible said, "Everything that is worshipped even as God or has anything to it as religion will be forced into it or you don't buy and sell, you die." How many of you have ever fasted for three or four days, outside of me? It's hard, ain't it, kid? Ever got to the place where you knew you were dying because you couldn't eat? Wait awhile, if you're here, that will happen. You can't buy or sell. You say, "Maybe someone will be good to me." That's possible. It will last for awhile, then they'll cut them off.

Now here's what you're looking at. You're looking at a people that are dying with social diseases, carnality from the Garden of Eden. You're looking at a people whose minds are taken over by Satan, and if you ever saw a group taken by Satan, the homosexuals are because they said, "Listen, guys, I'm going to tell you in government, we're running you. You guys are going to give us billions of dollars and we're going to do what we're doing because we like doing it and you're going to pay for it or we'll fix you."

And the churches are ordaining homosexuals and everything else. And they're pleading mercy and tolerance and this and that. I'm not against all those things but I want to tell you something, brother/sister, don't you know that Satan's eden is here which is ready for a takeover. That's what I'm going to tell you, and I've given you the Word of God that the separation is the washing of the water by the Word. And who knows what that Word is, unless the same One that gave It, has come down somehow and interpreted It? And that's exactly the truth that's got to happen. Now I believe it's happened. It's up to you. Let's rise and be dismissed.

59 Heavenly Father, we want to thank You again for Your kindness Lord, that you bestowed upon us, Your goodness, Your mercy Lord, which You have given us this day by giving us what we believe is a vindicated Word to rely upon. And Father, we know that we don't understand it all but we do know that this much is our understanding that this is a vindicated Word, and if the prophet said it then the right way to have a proper understanding and a mind toward You Lord, is to at least be grateful for that Word and receive It, until proper understanding comes which will come according to our measure and our destiny Lord, which we know we're not all alike but it will be the true Word of God for each one of us in our measure. And so we thank You for that Lord.

We know little children who have open hearts, that will be no problem, older people could be even Lord, going senile, it wouldn't matter because the Word would be their portion Father. And those of us that simply don't have a grasp, we know that that's...that is not going to matter Lord, because we believe that what You said in your Word how You would restore that Word. And we believe it to such an extent and fullness that what does come to our understanding, we know that that to be the truth for this hour.

And we appreciate it, that You Yourself interposed Yourself, intervened Yourself, that these things might be within our jurisdiction, Lord that we can say, "Yes, I receive It, and I thank you, I Lord," so we thank You this morning for Your Word, and as the prophet told us so very truly, truthfully, that we could take this message for our healing. I believe Lord, that that is what is happening that You are arising with healing in Your wings, and even as Abraham and Sarah had You pass over them that day, as it were, with Your wings outstretched and they returned to young people in order to bear Isaac, so there will be a people on earth whose cells will change to immortal and they'll be in the dew of youth with the glory of the Lord shining upon them.

Lord, that's wonderful to think that everybody in this building is going to look just like a sixteen year old to a nineteen year old amongst us. We look at those children, and we may be facetious as why where men like H.G. Wells and George Bernard Shaw who said, "Youth is so wonderful; it's a pity to waste it upon kids." And Lord, the youth will not be wasted upon children, we'll all be adults. It won't be wasted at all. There in the beauty of our youth we will stand with You on that great day overshadowed by God Himself in a Pillar of Fire, so before we call there is answer, where the lamb and the lion will lie down together. The lion and the ox will eat grass together. And the people of God will be nourished up, there'll be no war. There'll be peace and there'll be beauty. With joy we'll be drawing water from the great river of life with the trees, roots on either side, and eat of the fruit thereof and take those leaves for the healing of nations, commemoration. There in the great banqueting room of Almighty God, there one with the Word, and one with the Word giver. How wonderful it's going to be Lord, but how terrible it's going to be for those that reject the Word in this hour, even as rejected back there.

Help Your people to understand Father, we're not building upon what we want. We're not building upon what we think, but we're building upon that which is in Your Word, has been vindicated to us because you interposed Yourself, You intervened in this hour. Heal the sick amongst us Lord; heal hearts that are wounded, minds that have problems, O God. These things we plead and we believe You're answering at this very moment Lord, that Your hands upon Your people, and the power of Your Word is coming forth Lord, in whatever the people have need of, and will finally end in glorified bodies. Bodies Lord, caught up to meet You in the air, to the Wedding Supper of our great God and Savior, coming back upon earth to take over a kingdom. These things we believe this morning Lord, not based upon fancy, not upon a fallacy, not upon men coming together but You dealing Lord, as You've always dealt according to Your Word. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be all power, honor, and glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

‘Take the Name of Jesus with you.’
